PREFACE

In January, 1934, I became interested in genealogy. Since then, through correspondence and visits with relatives, I have obtained the old records and letters reproduced herein.

I am attempting to obtain more of such records with the intention of publishing facsimiles of those that will throw light on our early ancestry. This seems a possible way to overcome the difficulties in tracing early relationships caused by the destruction, during the Civil War, of many records in Hanover County, Virginia.

This record is not to be considered as a finished work, but as a preliminary one, sent out for correction, and to obtain additional information.

Please send me photostat copies of similar records of the early Virginia Andersons and kindred families, or the addresses of those owning such records.

I am including in this record Anderson families of Colonial Virginia which may or may not be related to ours, as there is no way of knowing who are related or who may have records. The more descendants I reach the more apt I am to obtain records, so I shall greatly appreciate receiving, where lacking, full addresses of all living persons listed herein, and of those who may be descendants of those listed.

I shall greatly appreciate receiving the following information which I hope to publish at a later date.

Kindly send me corrections and additions to this record covering the descendants, or those thought to be descendants, of Robert Anderson I. I am not attempting to list all the descendants of the other lines, only giving enough to show intermarriages.

When sending me such information kindly include, where possible, the following: Names of parents, list of their children, references where further information can be found; place and date of birth, school or college attended, also date of graduation; date and place of death, name and location of cemetery; war record, business, etc. If exact dates are not known give approximations, where possible, with "about" before the date.

In listing children, where dates are lacking, state whether or not the correct order of birth is given.

Where a person, marrying into the family, is a descendant of any line shown in this record, trace back his descent to an ancestor given in the record. Where one is not so related give references (book, volume, and page) where his ancestry can be found. If no such reference is known, give the name of the parents and grandparents, and where they were from.

It is not necessary to use my system of symbols, but you may find my abbreviations useful.

In this record symbols are used to designate individuals. Should you have occasion to write me regarding an individual with such a symbol, please give the symbol as well as the name.

These symbols consist of digits and letters. The last character of a symbol represents, where known, the position of the individual among the children of the parent whose line is given. 1 represents the oldest child, 2 the second born, etc., 0 being considered as 10, a as 11, b as 12, etc. One character is used for each generation. Where the order of birth is unknown the last letters of the alphabet are used. Capital letters are used where I believe the order of birth is correct; 1, 2, 3, etc., a, b, c, etc., indicate certainty; Z, Y, X, and z, y, x, etc., indicate doubt. Where the symbols show this doubt and you can positively give correct order of birth, kindly do so.

The characters preceding the last in any symbol is the parent's symbol. I have used s to z as the symbols of the children of Robt. Anderson II, as given by E. L. Anderson on his chart, and in A5. So any individual having a symbol starting with s, t, u, v, w, x, y, or z will presumably be a descendant of Robt. Anderson II.

My symbol is v6745 being the fifth child of my father whose symbol is v674; he was the fourth child of my grandfather whose symbol is v67; my great grandfather's symbol is v6, he being the sixth child; and the symbol of my great great grandfather is v, the dates of birth of his brothers (and sisters, if he had any) being unknown.

Symbols are given before the individual's name.

Abbreviations, in brackets, immediately after a name refer to publications listed at the end of this Record.

Roman numerals or letters after these abbreviations indicate the volume, and the numbers after p. indicate page. A star * after the abbreviated reference to a publication shows that the individual's portrait is given in the publication.

These abbreviations, as well as initials of individuals which follow the list of publications are also used to show where I obtained my information. A star * after an individual's name indicates he furnished information regarding his immediate family.

(v675) Edward L. Anderson, (v691) Gen. T. M. Anderson, and (v697) Dr. Charles Anderson have written of our early ancestors and do not agree. Edward L. Anderson gives reasons for his conclusions, while the ancestry back of Robert III in the accounts of Gen. T. M. Anderson and Dr. Charles Anderson, appear to me conjectures arrived at without the careful investigation made by E. L. Anderson. I am reproducing herein the family chart of Edward L. Anderson, and articles appearing in the Richmond, Va., Standard of 1881, mostly by B. A. Brock.

I give below the account of our early ancestry given by Edward L. Anderson in (A5 p. 3-10) "The Andersons of Gold Mine":

"In the first half of the seventeenth century there were several families of the name of Anderson in eastern Virginia.

"Owing to the destruction or loss of most of the records, it is impossible in these days to state the relationship existing between these families, but from the few remaining registers it appears that many of them held such official positions as to warrant that they were persons of means, influence and social distinction, and it is probable that most of the early Andersons were of kinship. (Charles City, York, 1642.)

"On the 4th of July, 1635, Richard Anderson, aged 17, left England for the colonies, and was followed July 31st of the same year by Richard Anderson, aged 50 years. These were probably father and son, who for prudential reasons took a dangerous crossing in different vessels. Both had subscribed to the oath of allegiance and supremacy and to that conformable to the discipline of the Church of England, and it is certain that the safe arrival of either might establish a family of wealth and worth, a great addition to a struggling colony. There can be little doubt that these Richards were the progenitors of the Hanover Andersons. The dates correspond with those whose ancestry we seek; the repetition of the name Richard for many generations, and the early appearance of their descendants in the magistracy, councils and parish vestries, as well as the marriages of the nearest descendants with such families as the Massies, the Cloughs, the Poindexters, the Overtons, the Garlands, the Dabneys and the Sheltons, are strong evidences that the two Richards were men who were the predecessors of a distinguished family.

"The earliest Anderson to whom the Gold Mine family may be positively traced is:

"ROBERT ANDERSON I, d. 1712, aged about 72 years, who in the deed April 16, 1683, Land Office, book 7, p. 272, was grantee of 727 acres in New Kent for the importation of fifteen persons; and in November, 1686, from the Parish Book of New Kent he is shown to have been a vestryman of St. Peter's until the parish of St. Paul was cut off in 1704, in which latter parish he remained a vestryman until his death in 1712. This Robert Anderson I, married Cecilia Massie of a well-known family which appeared in Virginia about the time of the arrival of the two Richards. It appears they had issue: Richard, David, Matthew, John, Thomas, Nelson, one of whom married a Garland, and two daughters, Mary and Cecilia. Richard was a magistrate in K. & Q. County, 1699-1702. David's son was an officer in the organized militia of New Kent in 1700. John was a great grandfather of Captain John 5th and 3rd Virginia, who married Mary, daughter of Robert III.

"ROBERT ANDERSON II, d. 1716, aged about 53 years. On October 23, 1690, 'Robert Anderson junior,' took over the 727 acres in New Kent, which has been relinquished by his father, for the importation of fifteen persons and on the same date received 1,200 acres for the importation of twenty-four persons, and in 1702 he appears as 'Robert junior,' a vestryman in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent.[1] In 1704, on the formation of St. Paul's, New Kent County (after 1720 of Hanover County), he appears as Captain Robert Anderson, his father as Robert Anderson senior. At this time there were but the two Robert Andersons in the vestries of St. Peter's and of St. Paul's and in the deeds. This captaincy appears to be of a parish militia, which had its origin about 1612 when the whole colony was an armed camp. (See Meade.) At this time and long afterwards, we find the Overtons, Garlands, Massies and others regular members of St. Paul's vestry. Robert Anderson II, married Mary Overton (sister of Capt. Jas. Overton) (1688-1749), of St. Paul's vestry, daughter of William Overton, who was born in England, 3rd of December, 1628, and Elizabeth Waters, daughter of Ann Waters of St. Sepulchre, London (1697).

"Robert Anderson II (d. 1716) and Mary Overton (d. about 1734) had issue as the deeds and parish records show, Richard, James, Garland, Matthew, David of Albemarle, Robert of Goldmine, Nathaniel, Charles, John, and possibly two daughters, Charity and Sarah. Robert II was Justice in New Kent in 1714. His brother, Richard, was a magistrate in King and Queen County, 1699-1702. Of these sons, David married Elizabeth Mills of English parentage, removed to Albemarle County and left many descendants who are well known throughout the Southern states. Overton Anderson, his grandson, died in 1809. * * * Samuel married a New; Charles married Janet Claiborne. John was the father of 'Cousin Jack,' who married Mary, sister of Col. Richard C. Anderson. Matthew was Burgess in place of John Syme, in 1734. He was a man of marked ability and good judgment and was greatly valued by his family and associates. He married Mary, daughter of George Dabney. His tombstone and that of his wife and only child stand in the churchyard in Gloucester.

"The early Andersons settled in York Coun-

[1]NOTE—V8 does not give either Robert on the Vestry of St. Peter's, but mentions Robert Anderson in 1686; Jno. Andrenson, Jno. Andrewson and Rob't Andrewson in 1689; Robert Anderson Jun'r in 1703. Among others at a meeting appeared "Capt. Rob't Anderson * * * in truste for Saint Paul's pr'sh at ye Brick Church in St. Peter's pr'sh ye 29th Aug't, 1704" and signed Rob't Anderson Jun'r, p. 81 and 83. On Nov. 26, 1750, Mr. Matthew Anderson, who was present as a vestryman on Oct. 31, 1747, was appointed Church Warden in the Room of Mr. George Webb.—W.P.A.

ty. By the division of New York in 1654, they found themselves in New Kent, then in 1720 their homes were in Hanover when that county was taken from New Kent, and this without a move upon their part; later other changes took place, but Hanover has for generations been looked upon as the home county.

"The Goldmine plantation was named from a creek which flowed through it and emptied into the South Anna River, a southern branch of the Pamunkey, St. Martin's Parish, Hanover County."

The following is taken from the records (C. A.) of (v6c) Gov. Charles Anderson: "April, 1878, went with Edward L. Anderson to Gold Mines the paternal Estate on South Anna River and Gold Mine Creek 800 acres now owned by heirs of Joseph Tally, deceased, who bought in 1833 of Daniel Webster, who bought from —— Couch, who bought it of Robert Anderson's heirs, say in 1793. Mrs. Tally told us that an old lady, who heard him, said grandfather Robert Anderson had such a voice that he used to call John Fleming, a grandson of Col. John Symme, to go hunting with him. Rocky Mills, a noble estate and Col. Symme's place, is a mile away."

(v8Y31) William Travis Howard, Jr., writes me March 7, 1935, that he accompanied Edward L. Anderson and Gov. Charles Anderson on this visit.

The above statements from A5 of the parentage of Capt. John Anderson (cousin Jack) who married Mary, daughter of Robert III, are conflicting.

Goldmines is on the west side of Gold Mine Creek just north of Rockville, which is 20 miles northwest of Richmond on Highway 160. The Author visited Goldmines in Jan., 1936, and found it had been divided into a number of farms, and the old house replaced by one now occupied by Ben and Jake Wilshire. Near their house is a tombstone inscribed "Robert Anderson of Goldmines, born Jan. 1, 1712, died Dec. 19, 1792" and "Elizabeth Clough, wife of Robert Anderson, born April 3, 1722, died Nov. 10, 1779." Mr. Wilshire informed me this tombstone was placed there by a Mr. Anderson about 58 years ago.

(x) Matthew, the son of Robert II, did not marry (DWV) Mary Dabney, but is supposed to have married (DX) Elizabeth Dabney. The (v3) Matthew Anderson, who married (DWV) Mary Dabney and is buried in the churchyard in Gloucester with his wife and child, was the son of Robert III.

Brock (R-24) gives the tradition that Thomas Anderson of Northumberland County, England, who established a shipyard in Gloucester, was the founder of the family in Virginia. Gen. T. M. Anderson also speaks of this and says he got his information from Robert Waller, a very aged gentleman he met in Williamsburg in 1866, who in his student days went to William and Mary College with a relative of ours. This must have been (v61) Richard Clough Anderson, Jr., W. M. '04.

Thomas Anderson, b. Feb. 10, 1733, d. Sept. 20, 1794, an architect from Northumberland, England, located in Gloucester Co. and married Frances Jones. He moved to Laurel Branch, near Verdun, Louisa Co., Va., in 1754. (See "Brief Biographies of Virginia Physicians of Olden Times" by Dr. L. B. Anderson, printed by The Richmond Clinic.) Verdun is near Ashland, Va., which is in the center of Hanover Co. It seems probable that Mr. Waller may have referred to this Thomas, who, I believe, is no relative of ours. Isabel Anderson, wife of (v6731) Larz Anderson, in her book, "Under the Black Horse Flag," gives Thomas as the father of Robert I, but she is not certain where she got this information.

The Journal of Samuel Davies (T I p. 111), who died in 1761, written in London, says: "Thursday, Feb. 14, 1754. Dined with Mr. Anderson of the South Sea House, a friendly, polite gentleman, and a secretary of the correspondents here with the Society for Propogating Christian Knowledge in Scotland. I find his uncle was the grandfather of the Andersons in Hanover."

Mr. Adam Anderson (W2 X 2nd Ser. p.

235), with whom Rev. Samuel Davies dined in 1754 was b. 1692, d. 1765, for 40 years clerk in the South Sea House. Ref. Encyclopedia Britannica.

Adam Anderson was probably a native of Aberdeen and his brother James was born there in 1680 (W2 X 2nd Ser. p. 235 and D I p. 371). Mrs. J. S. Watson sent me an abstract of Adam Anderson's will. She went to the Society for Propogating Christian Knowledge, Northumberland Av., London. Neither the will or their records gave any information that threw light on our ancestry.

Samuel Davies, if referring to our family, must have meant the generation of Robert Anderson III, for Robert II had been dead 38 years. The only Andersons to Virginia given in "Hotten's List of Emigrants to America 1600 to 1700," are: 1634, John Anderson, 20 years; 1634, Thomas Anderson, 18 years; 1635, Richard Anderson, 17 years; 1635, Richard Anderson, 50 years; 1679, Margaret Anderson in the Ketch Unity for Virginia; so it would seem that Robert Anderson I was born in America, although this is not certain as there undoubtedly were Anderson emigrants not on Hotten's List. Robert I may have emigrated from Aberdeen or he might have been the son of Richard Anderson, who, in 1635, at the age of 50, embarked for Virginia on the Merchants Hope, leaving a son in Aberdeen, who was the father or grandfather of Adam, as the latter may have referred to his great uncle. It is also possible, but very unlikely, that one of the younger emigrants was Robert's father, and later returned to Aberdeen and had a son, who was Adam's father. More definite information is needed before accepting Adam's uncle as our forefather as there may have been other Andersons in Hanover at that time, and it seems strange with such large families of boys, none of the known sons or grandsons of Robert I were named Adam. It is true a grandson was named James, possibly for his uncle James Overton, but no son was named James.

(v6731) Larz Anderson had Mr. Withington, an American living in London, who went down with the Lusitania, make an investigation seeking to trace our Anderson ancestry in Virginia and England, but the result was fruitless, after a number of years of effort.

Where issue is not given after an intermarriage in the following record, consult the line of the parent whose symbol is given in brackets.

Wm. Fowke Esq. of Weston Hall co. Suff'k to be joint trustee with my friend Samuel Gist Esq. & my wife M. A. William Anderson, a native of Virginia, removed to London where he became a merchant and acquired a considerable estate.

A copy of William Anderson's Will is on file in the Virginia Archives Department, among the papers laid before the General Assembly in connection with the emancipation of the Anderson negroes.

His line evidently lapsed as the crown advertised for heirs (R-30 I).

trans. to 3rd Va. 1778, Capt. Lt. 1780, Ret. 1781. This war record evidently does not apply to wy as the following is the Pension Record of Nathaniel Anderson as obtained from the Veterans' Administration July 1, 1935:

"The data herein were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim, W. 9701, based upon the Revolutionary War service of Nathaniel Anderson.

"The date and place of this soldier's birth and names of his parents are not given.

"Nathaniel Anderson entered the service sometime in February, 1776, was a Lieutenant in the Virginia Line in the Revolutionary War and served "upwards of three years;" no further details of service given.

"Nathaniel Anderson married December 2, 1787, in Hanover County, Virginia, Sally Jones; their marriage was recorded in the County Clerk's Office of said Hanover County. He died in February, 1799, in Caroline County, Virginia.

"Nathaniel Anderson's widow, Sally, married about a year after his death, one William Anderson, of Caroline County, Virginia, who was born August 4, 1773 (his relationship to Nathaniel not shown). William Anderson died in Caroline County, Virginia, June 14, 1836, and his widow, Sally, died August 28, 1840, in said Caroline County in the home of her son, Herbert Anderson, and Frances E. Anderson, whose age in 1850 was forty-five years (the relationship of Herbert and Frances E. Anderson not stated).

"Sally Anderson was survived by the following children:

"Herbert Anderson, the oldest son, whose father was William Anderson, was in 1850 aged fifty years and a Justice of the Peace for Caroline County, Virginia.

"Children continued—

"Armistead Anderson.

"Mary B., who in 1850 was the wife of one John Richardson or Richerson.

"Catharine T., who in 1850 was the wife of William E. Green.

"One of the four surviving children was also referred to as William A. Anderson, possibly the same as Armistead named above. It is not stated whether Nathaniel or William Anderson was the father of the three children last named.

"On August 12, 1850, one Elliott C. Roane, Administrator for Sally Anderson, applied in Caroline County, Virginia, in behalf of the above-named surviving children, all then living, for the pension due their mother, Sally Anderson, on account of the service of her former husband, Nathaniel Anderson, in the Revolutionary War. The claim was allowed.

"In 1785, Nathaniel Anderson's brother, John Anderson, was living near Hanover Town, in Hanover County, Virginia. In the same year, the following brothers of Nathaniel Anderson's wife, Sally, were living in the same place: Merriwether Jones, Jekyl Jones and Skelton Jones. One William Clough Anderson, a relative, moved from there to Kentucky, his exact relationship not stated.

"In 1783, Lieutenant Colonel Richard C. Anderson testified at Richmond, Virginia, in behalf of the soldier, Nathaniel Anderson, and in 1787 he held the office of Surveyor General for the Continental Line, in the Western County, his relationship to the soldier not given.

"The following family data also appear in the claim, but the relationship to the family was not stated: "Sarah J. Anderson was born 19th of July, 1790, and died 21st of July, 1839."

"In 1799, the name of Bathurst Jones was recorded in the County Court records of Caroline

wu ANN ANDERSON

m. (dv48) Dabney MINOR (w. [wz]).

The wills of both (w) David Anderson and his wife Elizabeth, d. 1804, mention daughter (wu) Ann Minor.

According to "The Minor Family of Virginia" (M9) the mother of Ann Anderson who

married (dv48) Dabney Minor (M9-26) was Mary Elizabeth Parkes, d. 1791, wife of David Anderson. It gives no other Dabney Minor who married an Ann Anderson.

(wz) William Anderson in his will dated 1793 mentions his grandfather Mills and leaves negroes given him by his late father to his mother for life. Thus his mother, who died in 1804, was named Elizabeth Mills, as (wz) William Anderson could not have been referring to Mary Elizabeth Parkes who died in 1791.

The wills of (w) David Anderson and his wife Elizabeth Mills lead me to believe that (wu) Ann Anderson was the dau. of Elizabeth Mills. Possibly "The Minor Family of Virginia" is in error in giving Mary Elizabeth Parkes as the mother of Ann Anderson, b. 1751, who m. (dv48) Dabney Minor.

(wu315) Minor Meriwether, b. 1827, states in The Meriwethers and The Minors, "Dabney Minor married Ann Anderson, of Hanover Co., aunt of Col. Nat. Anderson of Memphis, and sister of Wm. Anderson of London, who left a large estate to distribute among his legion of heirs. My share was $28.25 received in 1884."

She was from Hanover Co., Va., and they lived at Woodlawn, Orange Co., Va. (W2 1st IX p. 181). Issue as given in (M9 and MM): 1—Sarah Elizabeth, b. 1775, m. Wm. (Abstract of will made by Mrs. M. W. Hiden, of Newport News, Va.):

"Louisa Co. Rec. W.B. 9 p. 44. Will of Matthew Anderson dated (no date) probated June 10, 1833. Executors hereinafter named to sell all the perishable part of my estate (except my wearing apparel which I give to my son David) and pay debts and funeral expenses. Executors to sell the "535 a. on which I reside that I purchased of Col. Richd. Anderson on Pamunky River and North Creek in Louisa Co. and had the title made to my son Richd., also 85 3/4 a. adjoining the aforesaid land which I purchased of Eliz. and David Paulett and had the title made to my bro. David for fear of its being taken from me by execution in payment of Col. Richd. Anderson's debt who I was at that time security for in considerable sums of money, and it was the general impression then that the legislature of Va. would pass an act subjecting lands to the payment of executions." Out of proceeds of these sales, the executors are to see that my wife Eliz. is comfortably supported by my children equally, and the proceeds from the 535 a. to be equally divided between my children Richd., Dorothy, Wm., Ann and David, and children of my dec'd dau. Mary. "The amount recovered from Samuel Gist decd. of London for the legacy left me by my decd. bro. Wm. Anderson of London I desire and order" may be equally divided among my legatees. Four slaves to dau. Eliz. wife Eliz. extrix and sons Richd., Wm., David, & son-in-law Robt. Thomson ex'ors.

(wqx531) Mary Unity Pendleton wrote me as follows; the Estate referred to being that of (wz) William Anderson:

"My Grandfather, Capt. J. M. Trice, had an uncle, Davy Anderson, who lived in Church Hill, Richmond, Va. He had three daus. and one son; Mary, Davyanna and Lula—Lula m. Thomas McCorkle, of Lexington, Va. They had one child, a dau., she m. a young minister and they went as missionaries to Africa where she died of Arican fever. I have no record of the son. I remember the daughters visiting my home. This David Anderson had the family Bible which he sent to England to prove his title to an estate, he did not get the estate and the Bible was never returned. My grandfather begged him not to give up the Bible. I do not know of anyone who has the records from the Family Bible."

"In the name of God, Amen, I, ROBERT ANDERSON of the Parish of St. Martin's in the County of Hanover do make and ordain this my last will and testament. I recommend my soul to God, hoping for a joyful resurrection through the merits of Jesus Christ my Lord and Saviour.

"My body I desire may be decently buried at the discretion of my executives. My worldly goods I dispose of in manner and form following to-wit, I give and bequeath to my son Robert Anderson, to him and his heirs forever, a part of a tract of land I purchased from the late Archibald Cary, whereon my son Robert now resides containing about four hundred and ten acres as surveyed by the late Col. George Carrington. I give and bequeath to my sons George Anderson and Samuel Anderson to them and their heirs forever not as joint tenants in common, eight hundred and twenty acres of land a further part of the above mentioned tract, to be equally divided between them having regard to quality as well as quantity, each to take his lot so as to include the plantation and houses whereon they respectively reside. I give and devise to my three daughters Cicelia Anderson, Elizabeth Austin and Mary Tally, one hundred and twenty pounds Virginia currency each. I give and devise to my three grand children Elizabeth Gregory New, Mary Anderson New and Robert Anderson New, the sum of one hundred and twenty pounds Virginia currency, to be equally divided among them or the survivors of them. My will and desire is and I accordingly direct that my sons and daughters, and each of them or their legal representatives render a true, just, and perfect account of every kind of property (Lands excepted) which they have received or may receive from my estate in my lifetime respectively at the probable value thereat at the time received—and after my just debts and the specific legacies herein devised are paid, the residue of my slaves and personal estate to be divided among my sons Robert Anderson, Matthew Anderson, Richard Clough Anderson, George Anderson and Samuel Anderson, and my daughters Cecelia Anderson, Elizabeth Austin, Mary Talley, and my three Grand children, Elizabeth Gregory New, Mary Anderson New, and Robert Anderson New (my said three grandchildren to be considered as one Legatee). It is my desire that a negro boy, Tom (son of Lyddia now in possession of my son-in-law Anthony New) be included in that part of my estate which shall be allotted to my grandson Robert Anderson New.

"It is further my will and desire that my Executors or the survivor of them may sell the negroes or any part of them (which my son-in-law Anthony New hath received from my estate) with their increase they being each and every of them for my grandchildren, Elizabeth Gregory New, Mary Anderson New, and Robert Anderson New, and also the negroes or any part of them which may on a future division fall to my said Grandchildren, and lay out the money from such sales in other negroes or in any other manner which they or the survivor of them may judge most advantageous for my said Grandchildren or if my Executors or either of them should think proper (in my life time) to make sale of or any other way change the property already allotted to my said Grandchildren and which hath been received by my son-in-law Anthony New for the benefit of my said children, such sale or change shall be good to all intents and purposes. It is my desire that my estate should not be appraised unless it should be thought necessary by my Executors. And lastly I do appoint and ordain my sons Matthew Anderson and Samuel Anderson Executors to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other Wills by me heretofore made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this day of May in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety one.

Mary Dabney, 1749-1820. They lived at "Concord" and later at "The Exchange," Gloucester Co., Va., which they sold to Mary's nephew (DWY8) Dr. James Dabney. Silk worms were kept in the attic of "The Exchange." They furnished silk from which two complete suits (grey in color) were made and presented by Mrs. Anderson to Gen. George Washington. (See R-36). (M8 p. 39)—(DWY16) "Thomas Dabney remembered seeing the silk-worms up there when a child, and his aunt Anderson, who presented these suits to Gen. Washington, used occasionally to give him a cocoon for a play thing." Owned land in Louisa Co. (V1 p. 253). They had only one child: 31—George Dabney Anderson, 1766-71. They were buried at "The Exchange," but later their bodies were removed to Ware Church by their gt. gt. nephew (DWY 83w) Wm. F. Dabney, of Nutley, N.J.

(v6c) Gov. Chas. Anderson says in the notes left by him that his uncle Matthew's wife made the silk suits for Washington. A5 p. 36 gives letter written from "Concord," 15 Nov. 1781, by (v3) Matthew to his brother (v6) Richard Clough Anderson. (v99132) Mary Anderson Courtenay gave me a copy of the following letter she received from (v42232) Mrs. Martha Wyatt Williams, which was written by (DWV) Mary Dabney Anderson to Wm. S. Wyatt, husband of (v42) Mary (Polly) Anderson New:

"Exchange"

"Dear Sir: Aug. 17, 1808.

"I send you by Doctr Smith $80.00 which is all I can raise at this time. Am truly sorry I have not more to send. But you must come down this Fall with your little family, which I shall be extremely glad to see, and by that time I shall sell my Barley and have a settlement. Enclosed is Mr. Turner's note for ten dollars. When Mr. Baynham returns I will thank you to send me a receipt for the money.

"Give my love to Polly, tell her she must excuse my not writing to her. My eyes I can scarcely finish this letter. She must write me by every opportunity. Adue, God bless you all. I am your friend and well-wisher,

Mary Anderson.

"P. S. Since writing the within I have received a little more money which will make you up one hundred dollars. I hope to see you this winter. Once more, adue.

Mary Anderson.

v6 RICHARD CLOUGH ANDERSON (A5, D, H10, K, 02*, S3) The following is an abstract from 02:

"Richard Clough Anderson, when sixteen, took a position with Patrick Coots, a merchant of Richmond. When twenty, he made many voyages for him as supercargo. Coots, an intense Loyalist, tried to dissuade him from joining the Continental Army, but to no avail, so called in Patrick Henry, a son of the minister of St. Paul's Parish Church, who secured R.C.A.'s appointment as a Capt. in the 5th Reg. C.L. His commission, signed by John Hancock, is dated March 7,1776. He received his baptism of fire at White Plains, Nov. 16, 1776, was wounded at Assunipink Bridge, Jan. 2, 1777, taken to a hospital in Phila., where he contracted smallpox, and came out of the hospital reported being one of the three ugliest men in the American Army. He rejoined his Reg. at Morristown, and in the Fall campaign against Gen. Howe, served with Gen. Greene. His brigade checked Lord Cornwallis at Brandywine, Sept. 11, 1777. He took part in fight at Germantown and went to Valley Forge. On Feb. 10, 1778, he was promoted to Maj. of the 1st Va., but still under Gen. Greene. Went into action at Monmouth. His Reg. became part of the expeditionary force under Gen. Lincoln, which invested Savannah, the assault being ordered Oct. 9, 1779. The 1st Va. was detailed to attack the Spring Hill Redoubt. The parapet of the outwork was some 16 or 17 feet high, and of very soft earth. Very few officers or men reached the top promptly. Among the first was Maj. Anderson. Scarcely had he reached the top when a Captain Towles lunged at him with his sword, and struck him in the shoulder. He was forced over the edge of the parapet, striking bottom with such force that he was ruptured. His servant carried him back to camp. On the way they passed Count Pulaski, who was mortally wounded, and on seeing his old friend and messmate, gave him his sword, which remained a valued relic until destroyed in a fire in Dayton in the '60.

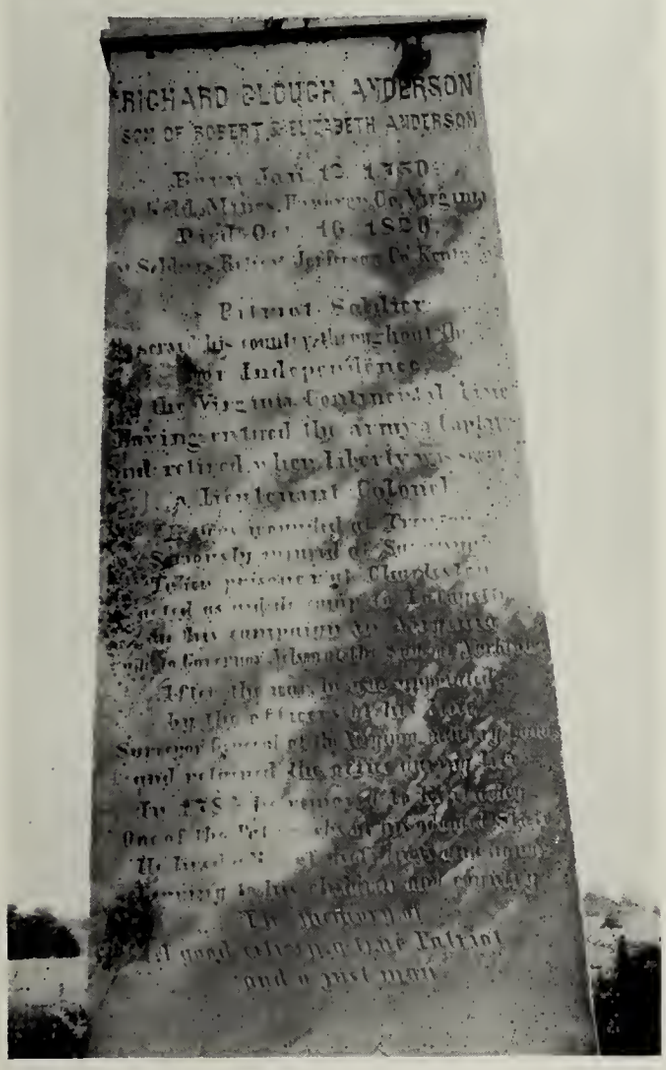
"Gen. Lincoln retreated to Charlestown surrendering May 21, 1780. Maj. Anderson was not yet out of the hospital at Fort Moultrie, when taken prisoner. On exchange of prisoners, he was ordered north and promoted to Lt. Col. of the 3rd Reg. C.L. and detailed as special Aide de Camp to Gen. LaFayette. When Cornwallis was finally cooped up in Yorktown, Col. Anderson was ordered to report to Gov. Dinwiddie as Chief of Staff in connection with the assembled Virginia Militia, and so served till the surrender, when he joined his regiment and continued therewith until the general muster out in the fall of 1783.



Monument at Soldier's Retreat

"The Colony of Virginia had made grants of land to the officers and men of the line in lieu of monetary payment. Script had been given to the troops on their muster out. To give the script value, it was necessary that the allotment of land be surveyed and segregated. The members of the Society of the Cincinnati selected Col. Anderson, one of their members, for this purpose and a contract was signed Dec. 17, 1783. He came to Kentucky with his fortune, three slaves, and his household effects, on seven pack horses. He built himself a log house at a spring, on the headwaters of Bear Grass Creek. This place he named Soldiers' Retreat.

"The rupture he received at Spring Hill Redoubt, rendered it impossible for him to do any but the lightest field work. He, therefore, appointed a number of young men his assistants. Among them were John Cleves Symmes, Nathaniel Massie, Duncan McArthur, Maj. John O'Bannion, Lucas Sullivant, James Taylor and Arthur Fox.

"In 1795 he rebuilt his house of stone and also built the first schooner to sail the Ohio. It was named the "Caroline," was said to have been about 450 tons, and made one successful voyage to London and return, and back to London again, but on her return was wrecked somewhere in the West Indies.

"In 1826 the rupture sustained at the attack on Savannah became strangulated and inflammed, and no surgeon being near, caused his death."

I,Samuel Anderson of the County of Cumberland in the sixty ninth year of my age being in good health,and of sound mind,do make this my last will and testament,without calling upon any person or persons to witness the same,knowing that my handwriting is well known. I desire that I may be decently buried without pomp or ostentation,that all my just debts be paid as soon as possible by my Executors hereafter named. I have already given and delivered to my daughters Ann Langhorne,Elizabeth Thornton and Judith C.Trent (now deceased) five negro slaves each,and some little stock, furniture &c.,each of which lots considered by me of equal value,in adition to the above slaves,whose names I consider unnecessary to mention,I lent to me daughters Langhorne and Thornton(a considerable time ago) three negroes to be returned to my estate with their children or their legal representatives,with an understanding,if said slaves so lent should not be called for in my lifetime,and that if it will not exceed their and each of their equal proportional parts upon a general division of my estate,that the negroes so lent to them be allotted to them,that is to say a boy,the name of Jerry and a girl by the name of Lavina to my doughter Langhorne and a girl by the name of Rady to my daughter Thornton being the same negro slaves lent as aforesaid to my said two oldest daughters.
To my son Benjamin Dabney Anderson I have already given a negro boy by the name of Wilson,and lent him three other negro slaves,to-wit, Sam,Charity and Rebeca and advanced for him considerable sums of money amounting perhaps to more than I shall be able to dofor any of the rest of my children,but notwithstand which I now confirm to him the loan of the negroes aforesaid,that is to say I lend them to him my said son Benjamin Dabney Anderson for the mutual use benefit and profit of himself wife and children for and during the lives of my said son and wife,and after their death I gave said slaves so lent,to their children to be equally divided between them meaning the said slaves and their increase to them and their heirs forever. I also lend to my said son Benjamin Dabney Anderson after the death of my wife,one third of the tract of land on which I now live containing six hundred and fifty acres that is to say Four hundred and ten acres of the same I own by devise from my deceased father and two hundred and forty acres of the same under a patent bearing date the twentieth of October one thousand eight hundred and fifteen which may be found in my disk,the whole of this tract of land by estimation contains seven hundred acres,including the patent land aforesaid. The four hundred and ten acres aforesaid (devised to me as aforesaid) has never been separated by survey from the whole tract of seven hundred acres aforesaid,so about fifty acres of the same still belongs to the estate of my deceased Father unless indeed,the circumstances,I think I am in duty bound to mention,may alter the case,my Father did a number of years ago inform me,but my brother Robert Anderson,had complained to him,that his land,being a part of the original tract owned by my Father containing about Fifteen Hundred acres,did not hold out by survey the Four hundred and ten acres,the quantity intended to be conveyed to him by deed,and desired me to have the deficiency,if any laid off to him in some place adjoining his tract with as little injury to the balance as possible,this subject I mentioned to my brother, but we not agreeing to the best of my recolection on the place of lay~~g~~ laying off the same,he had a line run laying off Thirty six acres, the supposed deficiency,which my a late survey of his tract of land proved to be a few acres more than the real deficiency,and the Tjirty six acres aforesaid,charged to him,by the commissioner of this County(Cumberland)but he having never paid any tax for the same, it was advertised to be sold for its taxes,hearing or seeing the advertisement I had the tax on the land charged to me,paid the arrears,and have paid all the taxes on the same ever since;my own impression and wish is,that the representatives of my deceased brother have the benefit of the deficiency aforesaid for which reason,and becouse it may be some guide to my exceutors hereafter named,I have stated the circumsta ances aforesaid. The loan aforesaid of the land aforesaid to Benjamin D.Anderson I mean as a loan to him his wife and children after the death of my wife,for and during his natural life and the life of his wife,and after their death to his son,my grandson Samuel Smith Anderson,to him and his heirs forever. To my said son Benj.D.Anderson ,as his Aunt Gracy Dabney has given to him for certain uses and purposed all his negroes. I also give and relinquish to him my claim against her for boarding,clothing her,raising and supporting &c a number of negroes numbers of years,a part of which account has been settled by an award of James Meridith and Cradock Wisdom to the seventeenth June 1811 leaving a balance of L 463 16 1 1/4 with interest from the first of January 1811 which may be found in my disk No.1 which I dirct shoud be delivered to my son Benj. D. Anderson by my executors hereafter named;the balance of a term of about Fourteen years for baording Clothing &c is remitted,but from the most reasonable calculations it woud leave a further balance in my favor of more than one third of the amount of settlement aforesaid, which I also relinquish to my said son Benj.D.Anderson without any claim or demand whatever upon the property conveyed to him by his aforesaid Aunt Gracey Dabney,considering all this greatly more than I can do for the rest of my children having the same feeling for them all he will not be _____ in the residuary claim of the my last will and testament except as to a bed and furniture,which I give to him his heirs &c. To my son Samuel Q.Anderson,I give the other two thirds of the tract of land on which I live containing the quantity before specified including my interest or rather two thirds of my interest in the undisposed of part of said tract by my Father supposed to be about Fifty acres(that is to say after the death of his mother)including the dwelling house and outhouses immediately adjacent thereto,which is ment to contain the corn house,barn and quarters within the barn lot,as well as the houses still nearer the dwelling house;but in my case my said son Samuel Q.should die without issue lawfully begotten of his body,then I gave the same to my son Benj.D. under the same regulations;restrictions and dispositions,as heretofore observed in the disposition of the one third of same tract of land,but in case my said son Samuel D. should die leaving issue of his body then and in that case,I give to him the said tract of land to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my said son Samuel Q.Anderson the six following negroes,to-wit: Edom,Frank,Nelson,Sally,Betsy and her child called Maurce,but in case he dies without issue aforesaid,then and in that case,they are to be returned into my estate,to be equally divided among all my children or their legal representatives,but in case of issue aforesaid being at his death,then I give the said slaves to him,my said son Saml.Q. to him and his heirs forever;I also give to my said son Saml.Q. all the furniture belonging or generally kept in the dining room and chamber except the bureaus,that is after the death of his mother, to him and his heirs forever. To my daughter Sarah S.Anderson I gave the following negro slaves,to-wit: William,Henry,Tom,Polly,Eima and Robin a child of Polly,also a decent Pony,saddle and bridle to her and her heirs and after the death of her mother I give to her and her heirs forever,all the furniture,belonging or generally kept in the room generally called the new room,and also the bureau now in the chamber,to her and her heirs forever. To my beloved and best of wives I give the whole of my property,including land and every description of property whatever not heretofore disposed,for and during her natural life,to be disposed of in her life in any way she may think proper,and if she should not dispose of the same,and whatever part she may not dispose,at her death,I direct should be equally divided between all my children that may then be alive or their legal representative,except my son,my eldest and beloved son Dabney, nor is he here left for any other reason,than verily beleiving I should not do by other children common justice in making him sharrer in this little surplus. And shoud my grandson William C.Trent die before he arrives to the age of twenty one,neither he or his Fatheras representative of my deveased daughter J.C.Trent are to partake of any part of my estate contained in this residuary clause of my last will and testament,but the same to be equally divided among my other living children or their legal representatives, to them and their heirs forever. Lastly I nominate and appoint my two sons in law Maurce M.Langhorne and William M.Thornton Executors of this my last will and testament,not doubting but they will execute the trust reposed in them for the best interest of my estate and all concerned,and that they will attend te ina a particular manner to the division of the land between my two sons in allotting to them,two thirds of the whole land to the one and one third to the other,including not only the 650 acres but my interest in the undisposed of 50 acres.It is my present intention to draw the will off again and to make some little alterations, but shoud I not do it this is to be considered my last will and testament,with all its erasures,interlinations,and other imperfections Given under my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of February,in the year of our Lord Christ,one thousand eight hundred and twenty six.

Samuel Anderson (seal)
generally written by me
Sam Anderson.

The Sherrill Record was obtained for me by (v99132) Mrs. Mary Tisdale Anderson Courtenay, who obtained it from (v9d73) Mrs. Carrie May Taylor Sherrill, who says about it:

"I am sorry I can tell you very little of the old book. I have heard my mother say it was taken from some old records held by some member of the family, and handed down to the oldest daughter, each one adding to it as time passed (probably a son had the first records). My grandmother was an invalid for years before her death so did little to it, my aunt, Mrs. Bell, Ann Elizabeth Thompson, may have not been interested in it, having no children so made no entries. She lived at my father's when she passed on. It became my mother's, being next in line I am sure she was too occupied with her own little family, she did nothing to it, but gave it to me. After I was married, Dabney's mother wrote the dates of the births in her family and I added my mother's."

v0 MARY ANDERSON

b. Aug. 18, 1759 (S), m. 1st Capt. John Anderson. Issue: 1—Benjmain; 2—Elizabeth, m. George Catlett (WMA).

The Revolutionary War records of the Veterans' Administration show that Warrant No. 54, for three hundred acres of bounty land, was issued prior to 1800, on account of the service of John Anderson as Captain of the Virginia line, War of the Revolution.

The General Land Office advises me that "Military bounty land Warrant No. 54, for 300 acres, issued Feb. 15, 1799, to the heirs of Capt. John Anderson, was located by E. Talley Guard, to whom it was evidently assigned, on Lots 6, 7, and 8, Sec. 4, T. 8 N., R. 15 W., Holmes County, within the U. S. Military District, Ohio." E. Talley Guard evidently was Rev. E. Tally, Guardian of Capt. John Anderson's children.

No heir has taken membership in the Society of the Cincinnati.

THE BARTOW FAMILY

The Bartows (A2 p. 167) descended from Gen. Bertaut, who fled from France to Holland after the St. Bartholomew Massacre in 1572, and later went to Crediton, Devonshire, Eng., and Anglicized name to Bartow. THE CRAWFORD FAMILY

Crawford Family Records (C4) by Wm. M. Clemens shows: "Alexander and Patrick Crawford, brothers, were among the earliest settlers in Augusta Co., Va. Patrick lived on the farm lying on the Middle River, owned in 1914 by his descendant John H. Crawford. His wife was Sally Wilson. His Will was proved Dec. 18, 1787.

"His oldest child, Elizabeth, m. Alex Robinson.

"The next dau., Margaret (Peggy), was 1st w. of her cousin, John Crawford, of North Mountain. Sarah m. Robert Crawford. Martha, b. May 10, 1761, was 2d. w. of Col. Andrew Anderson. Mary (Polly), the youngest dau., m. James Crawford, d. 1798."

Col. Andrew Anderson was the son of John and Jean Anderson of Augusta Co., Va. (G4).

Ann Crawford m. Nelson Anderson, 1799, in Amherst Co.

The relationship with the Crawford family to which (v6c) Gov. Charles Anderson refers (R-76) may be through Ann Anderson (dau. of John Anderson and Sarah Waddy), who m. David Crawford.

(Cw18226x4) Mrs. W. B. Ardery informs me that in the Bourne Collection of Manuscripts, filed at Frankfort, Ky., in Historical Library, the record of John Anderson, son Robt. and Mary (Overton) Anderson, is given as married to a dau. of Samuel Waddy. This seems incorrect as Sarah Anderson, widow of John Anderson, late of Parish of St. Paul, Hanover Co., gen'l. decd. and John Anderson of same parish and Co., planter conveyed to John Thomson, 80 acres being land Samuel Waddy had conveyed 28 Jan. 1696 to John Anderson and Sarah, his wife, and the heir of her body, which heir the said John Anderson, party of these present 7 Aug. 1735 (V4 VII p. 67). I do not believe John, son of Robert Anderson and Mary Overton, could have been married in 1696. His brother, Robert Anderson III, was born in 1712 (see Wm. Marshall Anderson Bible Record), and Robert Anderson II died 1716, aged about 53 (A5 p. 6). Of course, the age of Robert Anderson II at the time of death is uncertain, but it seems more likely that John Anderson who married Sarah Waddy was the brother and not the son of Robert Anderson II, provided there is a relationship.

I hope to give later the descendants of David Crawford and Ann Anderson. I would be glad to have anyone having information on them or their descendants communicate with me.

THE DABNEY FAMILY

I am indebted to (T.W.) Mr. Trist Wood, of New Orleans, and (DWX652V) Dr. William M. Dabney, of Ruxton, Md., for information of the early Virginia Dabneys and they do not entirely agree.

W. M. D. thinks Cornelius was the sole Virginia progenitor of the Dabney family, while T. W. gives a tradition that he had a brother John[1], who married Susannah Jennings, and had a son John[2] Dabney, b. in England ca. 1665, d. 1699, emigrated to Va., m. Sarah Jennings, who afterward m. Wm. Winston, in 1701. This John[2] had a dau. Susannah[3] Dabney, b. ca. 1698, m. Francis Strother. Their son William[4] Strother m. Sarah Bayly (widow of Wm. Pannill). Their dau. Sarah[5] Dabney Strother m. Col. Rich. Taylor. Col. Richard Taylor served under Washington in the Rev., moved to Ky. soon after Zachary's birth, and was a friend and neighbor of (v6) Richard Clough Anderson, and were the parents of Gen. Zachary[6] Taylor (E), 12th Pres. of the U.S. In 1808, Zachary was commissioned 1st Lt. 7th U.S. Inf.; Capt. in War 1812, Maj. 1814. For victory over Seminole Indians at Okeechobee, Dec. 25, 1837, he was breveted Brig. Gen. He won the most decisive victory of the Mexican War over Santa Anna, at Buena Vista, which suggested him as a possible Whig candidate for President. Gen. Zachary[6] Taylor m. Margaret Mackall Smith, and their dau. Ann[7] Mackall Taylor m. Brig. Gen. Robt. C. Wood, Ass't Surg. Gen. U.S.A. Their son, Col. Robt.[8] C. Wood, m. Wilhemine Trist, who were the parents of Trist[9] Wood.

Both agree that d—Cornelius[1] Dabney, b. ca 1640, d. 1693, who first patented lands in Va. in 1664, emigrated to America from England, m. 1st Edith ——, and had at least two sons. W. M. D. has seen in the Public Record Office, in London, Eng., a letter dated June 29, 1678, from Cornelius Dabney to Col. Francis Moryson, in which he says his wife Edith presents her respects to Col. Moryson and would gladly send him one of her boys a year or two later. A family tradition gives d—Cornelius[1] Dabney (GH) (V IV—vestryman 1684-94, St. Peter's Parish Book, New Kent Co., Va.), m. 2d. Susannah and had dw—Cornelius[2] Dabney, b. ca. 1686, m. Sarah Jennings; dv—Mary[2] Dabney, b. Jan. 22, 1688, d. Sept. 7, 1748 (GH), m. Capt. Thomas Carr, b. 1679, d. May 29, 1738 (GH), who built "Bear Castle," Caroline Co., Va. (son of Thomas Carr, b. 1655, from Eng. to Va., of Topping Castle, Caroline Co., Va., which was burned Mar. 31, 1896, m. 1676, Mary Garland). After the death of (d) Cornelius Dabney, his widow, Susannah, m. (David?) Anderson.

"February 5, 1724—Susanna Anderson's will, recorded in Hanover, leaves her son, Cornelius Dabney, all her ready money and debts in England and Virginia, and appointing her son, Cornelius Dabney, sole executor of her will. She had three children by her second marriage—one daughter, who married James Trice, and another who married Captain Thomas Carr, and one son, David Anderson." The Dabneys of Virginia. Alice M. Tyler concluded from this that James Trice married Ruth Anderson. (See [wqx].)

T. W. writes me: "The above was sent to the author of 'Dabneys of Virginia,' by Mr. Wm. Winston Dabney, who made various copies and abstracts of Hanover Co. records before they were destroyed.

"Mr. Dabney's papers I understand can't be located.

"The above is in part an abstract and in part an interpretation.

"To change it to an abstract, cut out 'She had three children, etc.' and substitute, 'She names her son-in-law James Trice, and son-in-law Captain Thomas Carr. Also one son, David Anderson."

THE DABNEY FAMILY

"We don't know exactly what information Mrs. Tyler had and in all probability she had knowledge that her ancestor, James Trice, had wife Ruth. Perhaps the Caroline Co. Records spared us (Order Bks.) show this.

"Naturally Mrs. Tyler concluded from the will in 'Dabneys of Va.' (the sole authority for the will) that Ruth was an Anderson. But the question is open—Was Ruth an Anderson or a Dabney? We know positively that Capt. Carr's wife was a Dabney." See p. 143.

DW—GEO DABNEY II

b. ca. 1701, of King Wm. Co., Va. (V I p. 404—Henrico County Records—William Dabney. Anne, wife of William Dabney and Anne, wife of George Dabney, relinquished their dower right in tract of land conveyed by George and William Dabney to Dasey Southall, Oct. 4, 1756. Min. Bk. 1755-62, p. 47.) Therefore it would seem the first name of the w. of Geo. II was Anne. (DWYc136) Edith Yarborough sent Mr. Trist Wood a fly leaf of an old book on which is written, in pencil:

"Judy Dabney married Shackleford.

Nancy married Dillard.

Mollie Dabney married Mathew Anderson, first cousin, had one child and lost him, George Dabney.

My grandfather's sisters, Judy and Mollie.

Two Bakers married Sharp and Kemp.

Mrs. Dabney was widow Baker."

(DWV) Mary (Mollie) Dabney (the dau. of Geo. Dabney II), m. (v3) Matthew Anderson, son of (v) Robt. Anderson III and Eliz. Clough. Therefore it would seem that the wife of Geo. Dabney II was (r) Anne Anderson, a daughter of Robert Anderson II or Ann Clough. E. L. Anderson lists no Ann among the children of Robt. Anderson II. Geo. Dabney II had a grandchild named (DWX5) Ann Anderson Dabney, and, although her mother's name was Judith Anderson, Trist Wood believes the wife of Geo. Dabney II was Anne Anderson, a sister of Robt. Anderson, who m. Eliz. Clough. As I am uncertain I am listing his descendants under Dabney and not Anderson. Issue of Geo. Dabney II: Z—Elizabeth, m. Crutchfield; Y—George, m. 1st Grace (Smith?), 2d. ?, 3d. Ann Baker, nee Nelson; X—James M. m. (Px) Judith Anderson; W—Judith, m. Shackelford; V—Mary, m. (v3) Matthew Anderson; U—Ann, m. Dillard.

W. informed me that Mrs. Sophie B. Marchant, of Oakland, Calif., is a descendant, but I have been unable to get in touch with her.

Thomas Baker, of K. Wm. Co., Va. In an old letter, date and signature missing, in possession of (DWYc136) Edith Yarborough is the following: "Ann Nelson's first husband was Mr. Baker, by whom she had two daughters; one married Mr. Sharp; the other Mr. Kemp. Then married Geo. Dabney, had nine children. Then married Mr. King, had no children." Miss Yarborough wrote Trist Wood: "I have heard my grandmother say that Geo. THE ANDERSONS OF PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY

Miss Katharine K. Adams sent me two letters she received from the late Joseph Banister Anderson, and a copy of one from him to Mr. Homer Eiler, of Topeka, Kan. In the letter J. B. Anderson states:

"I have been collecting genealogical data of the ANDERSON-Claxton-Wentworth-Terry families for a number of years. Just before your letter of 24 Aug. came to hand, I had written to the clerks of a number of E. Va. counties asking them to examine the indices of the record books in their offices from 1634-1880 for wills, deeds, marriages &c of the Anderson family. The earlier records of Gloucester, New Kent, Isle of Wight, Hanover, were destroyed by fire during the Civil War, I was informed. Two deeds from Cumberland Co. were of no value to me. The clerk of Amelia Co. gave me the name of the 2d. wife of my g.g. father RICHARD ANDERSON—JANE FOSTER.

"I have the records, written by their own hands, of my father, Joseph Eggleston Anderson and my gr. father, Thomas Anderson, and of my g.gr. father, Richard Anderson. I am enclosing a list of names copied from their records. I hope it will be of service to you in collecting data for your branch of the family.

Very truly yours,

Joseph B. Anderson."

Richard Anderson[1], b. ca. 1639-40, of New Kent and K. & Q. Cos., Va., m. ca. 1680, is thought to have been the father of Richard, Jr.[2], Matthew[2], Hansford[2], and possibly others. Richard Anderson, Jr.[2], b. in New Kent Co., ca. 1681, d. in K. & Q. Co. before 1767, is thought to have m. Margaret and have been the father of Paulin[3], Richard[3], Roger[3], and Francis[3].

Paulin Anderson[3], b. ca. 1701, d. in K. & Q. Co., resided in K. & Q. and Amelia Cos., m. in Middlesex Co., Jan. 9, 1723, Judith Churchill Jones (W2 1st IX p. 40), b. Dec. 26, 1702 (dau. of Capt. Roger Jones and Mary Churchill, dau. of Col. Wm. Churchill). Issue: Richard[4], m. 2d. Jane Foster; Francis[4]; Matthew[4], and several daughters.

Dear father Louisville Feb 4 1814

For some time past I have seriously contemplated a change of my residence for one in the Country Indeed my first wish to settle in town resulted entirely from its supposed convenience with regard to my business: My feelings have ever desired the peacefulness of the country - I have of late determined to leave town provided I could procure a seat which pleased me In putting the plan into execution I should be governed by my future feeling as to my professional pursuit whether I should continue the practice without interruption or retire for a few years from it and return to it in the Superior Courts - This plan I have occasionally thought of but have never matured it and should be influenced in my course by duty weighing the relative pleasure of agriculture and the bar - The indisposition which I have at intervals for several months, had, though not serious (I believe) but yet troublesome and vexatious, has not a little contributed to influence my wishes. this last reason I hoped however will be of but temporary existence Some few years ago, you made to me the offer of Nelli's place provided I deemed it an eligible seat for my happiness: at that time I supposed the town a more proper situation for residence, but I would now very gladly make it the seat of my permanent abode if you have not since made any arrangement which would be broken by it - My own opinion always has been that if it could be enlarged by the purchase of some adjoining land on the East (I believe it belongs to Laurence) it would be one of the most desirable seats I ever saw. In its cultivation I should delight

If you have made any arrangement inconsistent with this you know me too well to suppose, I could wish it violated - I am aware of the incumbrance of the tenant and If I could indulge my feelings entirely I should wish to retire to the Country immediately but I apprehend I could not conveniently arrange my business so as to leave town finally much before that incumbrance would expire. This idea of removal I have not mentioned, as it may never happen and if it should agreeably to my wishes I should not make it known before the period arrived, it might have effect on my situation in town - Betsy is well and I am doing my business

I am affectionately R. C Anderson jr

Dear Father Washington May 8th 1820

I received a letter from Larry on Saturday last; he was very well he has declined the idea of leaving Cambridge at this time I shall write to him immediately and urge him to be more regular in his correspondence with the family.

I shall leave the city on Tuesday the 16th and expect to be at home about the first day of June We are in hourly expectation of receiving a Message from the President on the subject of Florida

Remember me kindly to my Mother & the family

I am yr aff. Son

I have this day written to several persons in the district, that I am not a candidate for Congress

My dear Mother Bogota Feb 27 1826.

We are disappointed very often, (and unfortunately it still continues) in not getting letters from Kentucky Not one word from your family since We arrived in Colombia Although I am never well, still I have been better since my arrival here than any of the family Robert has been unwell and I am sorry to say that he is not so well to day as when he wrote to you

Yesterday he was disappointed in waiting on a lady as he intended, by that most troublesome companion "an ague" - to day he is walking about, but feels, as all do, who have such a troublesome plague.

I hope to see you towards the end of this or the beginning of the next year. Give my love to my father and all the children - and believe me to be your most affectionate son

My dear Father Bogota October 8th 1824

Ten days ago that is by the last mail from Carthagena I received your letter sent by Larz By the same mail I received a letter from Larz, in which he informed me of his arrival at that place after extraordinary and most vexatious delays, both on his passage and at Jamaica However no doubt he has informed you of all the incidents of his voyage From his letter to me I expect to see him in a few days and I intend to keep this letter open until the morning when the mail again arrives and I shall hear from him or the consul on what day he left Carthagena*

I am happy to hear from your letter and that of Mr Grathmey of the 4th July that you and your family are well. The season has now arrived to make us very anxious to hear how our friends in Louisville and its neighbourhood passed through the fall months My family is tolerably well. Arthur very frequently complains of a head ache, which sometimes makes us uneasy, but he is now running about Elizabeth & Ann are well A disease of the bowels is a very common complaint in this country, particularly with all who have to pass through the hot lands of the sea coast. However I have seen nothing to make me believe that this is a sickly country The indisposition of my family was such as might have occurred any where, with the exception of Ferdinand Bullitt's case. that I believe was produced by the tropical sun and an unsound liver—

We have no important news here. We have been for some time in anxious expectation of hearing something interesting from Bolivar & the Peruvians. The last news gave an account of a successful engagement between two detachments of the armies and of the retreat of Canterac the Royalist General. In the Republic of Colombia every thing is as tranquil as in the U States and more so than in Kentucky when the relief laws are under discussion

However in many things, the people here are a long way behind those in the U States. Another generation will probably be necessary before they can come to the full enjoyment of all the blessings of a free Government — Larz will be able to give you a better account of it than I can write However every body who comes here & stays a short time, having seen but little more than the bad roads & bad accommodations goes away with a bad account — We shall of course detain Larz with us as long as possible however he cannot remain long, as I shall wish him to be in Washington in the month of January — Betsy and the children send their love to you. My Mother, Cecilia, Louisa and all the children Arthur very often dreams about being at his Grand papas

I wish you to write to me frequently

With love to my Mother and all, I am

affectionately yours

R C Anderson

I have detained the letter until the last moments but the mail has not yet arrived

Dear Louisa

Since the reception of your letter of the 25th April, we have had cases of the Cholera at Fort Louis and the vicinity, during its progress, I defered writing, hoping that I might write when all were well. But, as there are yet some straggling cases, and it is uncertain when it may be expected that we can say we are entirely exempt from it, I shall want no longer I have lost one workman at my Post, and though many others have been and some are now sick I hope we shall soon be well — When I wrote you Mr Cox lost his only child a fine boy, with the hooping cough — She has been quite ill, but is now slowly convalescing The rest of our friends are well Ann Bullitt was confined last week to her bed, but is now well — Some weeks since I had cherished a hope, that, Mother and yourself would have come on with Mr Latham and Maria to visit me, but from the appearance of the Cholera I have not thought that you would come — A long and lonesome summer will then pass to me — as I expect to be alone, in a large comfortable house until October when my Comdt Officer will return with his family

Do you ever hear from Larz or William If so, you are more favored than I am Wm has not written since I saw him in My Larz I think only one short note I hear occasionally from by strangers from our friends in Louisville, and sometimes from letters to Mrs Atherton — They were all well at my last accounts Charleston the best correspondent I have in the family he writes more frequently and docutbly than the others Larz is entering a career of Politics To this it appears

all professional men must aim sooner or later
When wars and rumors of wars, may be over. I propose settling on some quiet spot, where I may feed my dogs horses and chickens, enjoying as complete an independence as possible. Whether I shall ever attain the station of a good industrious lord of the soil, I know not, but at all events, shall indulge a hope that such may yet be my lot — I heard from Louisville a few days since that Charles had decided on studying a profession. What has wrought the change in him? Has he found in his perambulations to the Lakes, that all farmers were not so independent and thrifty as his imagination had depicted? — I thought from his last letter to me he had resolved to devote himself to the cultivation of the soil — I may be mistaken but I look forward to Charles' course in life with great interest, believing that he will do well in any thing he undertakes — Perseverance is only necessary to command success — Misfortunes may for a short time delay its progress, but the chances are greatly in favor of a favorable termination to a course of industry and perseverance

I am glad to find that John has been applying himself to business. when he becomes systematic and industrious he will make a richer man than any of us — John has materials in him for making a fortune but he has been unfortunate in his selection of the "ways & means" of managing. When he gets married, you will find a great change in him — that is if he marries the woman his good sense would select for him —

Mr I fear will live some years longer a Bachelor Unsuccessful in one attempt he is now too proud to make another effort —

I rejoice at having so favorable an account of Sarah's improvement under your tuition — She has much to learn, and to accomplish her desirable task she must apply herself closely to her books — In a few years she will be a young Lady, and who ever heard of them applying themselves to books, however ignorant they may prove to be on turning out — Sarah has mind enough if well cultivated to make a well informed interesting Lady, I hope she will see the necessity then of assiduously applying herself to her studies —

Believing that you will scarcely recognize my writing in this, I shall explain the cause of the difference by stating that one of the fingers of my right hand is so much swollen as to be painful when the hand is pressed against the paper —

Give my best love to Mother, Marcus Mr L & Sarah — You know what pleasure I derived from receiving a letter from you — write again — write anything, and you shall always hear from me —

I received your very welcome present my sweet sister and your still more welcome note accompanying it, by Lieut Johnston, and I thank you heartily for both I shall most readily comply with your wishes as to having the slippers made, but they are so very beautiful and I shall so prize them as your deft handiwork that I fear I shall not have the heart to wear them, except upon state occasions, perhaps when I may be recovering from sickness and rolling upon a couch, when the use will not be a trying one

I was unfortunately absent when Mr J called, and I had not the pleasure of seeing him and hearing directly from him how you were I trust, however though you say nothing about it that your health has improved and is improving — for nothing I assure you my dear sister would give us more gratification than such tidings

I ought to have written you a week ago about your little nephews I do not mean the old ones Richard & Nicholas & Nellie — but two yes two new ones What do you think of that? We are blest with two more fine & healthy boys, who are now a week old I should have informed you of it sooner, but I have been compelled to be absent almost all the time. after I could leave Cuthbert — and am but just returned from Louisville Kate and the little black heads are doing very well I verily believe the hair as well as the eyes of these little fellows will be black both are so now and I hope will continue to be so There is of course great rejoicing over the new-comers with us and not the least with our other boys who think there is nothing like them

Little Alice is still mending but very slowly Son has been very well until within a short time, when the cough, that was so troublesome last winter, has shown some symptoms of returning. Mother is still at Hayton and was together with

Dear Brother

I have received with sincere pleasure the letter forward by Capt Lyon and considerd your directions for my conduct as we shall do as the most pleasing proof of your affection. That you may soon return and give me the pleasure of perceiving that your example illustrates your precepts will gratify my most ardent wish: and I shall expect a most surprising information You have possibly received information that three months have elapsd since Miss Eliza B Morris resigned her heart and hand to Mr Cornelius P Berriam of the Firm of Cohn & Berria of New-York: A gentleman whose worth is universally acknowledged I suppose you have by this time began to practice your profession and probably fixed on your place of residence but as you represent the law to be neither lucrative or honorable in the State of Ohio I should suppose that New-York or New-Jersey would suit you as well. but I leave that to your superior judgement Since presses: but be assurd that though few are my words many are my wishes for your health and happiness: and till the heart that dictates: and the hand that writes these lines shall moulder to dust I shall remain brother of my heart

Yours affectionately

The interesting information communicated in your last my dear Brother was received with the pleasure your friend must ever feel in any addition to your happiness: although it prevented a design I contemplated of being revenged on you for the many long lectures you have obliged me to attend to by giving you some of my profound reflections on matrimony: wherein I should have told you perhaps not to permit your eye to mislead your judgement and some other common place maxims little attended to by lovers however you shall not hear them at present for far from my heart is the wish that you shall discover the failings of the wife you have chosen the fairest or of your affections I am far from thinking she possesses any and shall hear with pleasure the same romantic description of her merits when age shall have destroyd the blooming beauty which attracted your admiration your description of the beauties of her mind is in my opinion more entitled to belief in the character of a husband than in a lover since the former might be supposd to be justifyed by experience. I am happy to learn that wine did not contribute to the evident derangement of your senses for had the effects of wine and love appeared in your brain at the same time what is only amusing in all probability would have been alarming I hope that the novelty will wear of in a short time if we are to wait till then for a letter but in the mean time should advise you not to perplex yourself with the ~~doubtful~~ you leave it more intricate than you found it A billious fever of near A months duration and which left me much debilitated has prevented my writing before this period either to you or the sister with whom you leave honord me. Mr Evans will set out for Cincinnati in A Month by whom your books will be sent to express A wish for your happiness in the matrimonial state is unnecessary since with A partner such as you describe it will be A natural consequence

With pleasure my Dear sister have I received the intelligence of my brother's happiness in being honored with your hand and heart And hope that he may never give you reason to repent the preference you have given to his merits I impatiently expect the time that I shall be A witness of his happiness. Dear Brother

Your letter of July 6th was received a fortnight since and I embrace the first opportunity a leisure moment has afforded me to acknowledge the favor with gratitude and assure you how sincerely I rejoice in the health and prosperity of yourself and those most dear to you I admit your remarks on the female sovereigns of England and Russia to be generally just that the actions of the latter where more splendid than those of the former I allow but you will please to recollect that Elizabeth did not like Catharine possess unlimited power: the immense revenues the powerful armies of her extensive empire were at the command of the Russian Autocratrix: with the first with A liberal hand she rewarded scientific merit and arts and literature and their most celebrated professors from the more civilized parts of Europe were transplanted to her dominions and fostered by her munificence: with the latter under the command of Romanzoff and Suwarrow she assisted in dismembering a once powerful kingdom caused the crown of the Ottoman sultans to tremble on the head of its possessor and had his life been prolonged would perhaps have accomplished the favorite object of her ambition by seating on the throne of the Roman Constantine her hustler life was dignified by many splendid actions but when we review her female life and reflect how many of the most amiable virtues of the heart she sacrificed to what Pope calls the most predominant female passions "The love of pleasure and the love of sway" we must admit that there would have been no impropriety in her adopting the confession of her predecessor Peter the great "I have civilized my subjects but I cannot civilize myself" In respect to Elizabeth your observation is just that she was assisted by able ministers James the second said to the first Walter on his calling her the greatest woman in the world "I wonder that you should think so but I admit she had A wise counsellor" Pope said Walter and did you ever know A female whose counsel since you accuse me it is your desire I should do so I will continue to profit by your friendship in receiving books from Newark only do me the favor to recollect the moment your liberality to me becomes the slightest inconvenience to yourself. no gratification it affords me could compensate the anxiety such a reflection would cause me. you desire the increase of your children will necessarily render your exertions to obtain A competence more arduous this is natural yet I am inclined to believe that the care that they add to the morning of your life will be repaid in the comforts they will bestow on your declining age "marriage says A celebrated author has many pains but celibacy has no pleasures" but A small share of our happiness arises from our present enjoyments while we look forward with delight to the period which we believe will confer greater in youth we anticipate the pleasures of maturity; arrived at that period we look back to the scenes of infancy with fond regret and even the pleasures of hope forsake us for who can anticipate pleasure from the winter of life that gloomy period of existence when to use the figurative language of the sublime Ossian "The Years of their fading is near and the blast that shall scatter their leaves" when the companions of their youth fall around them and themselves tremble in every breeze what but the sweet prospect of entwining the values and prosperity of their offspring can then render life A blessing very pleasing emotion which gives A zest to life is again renewed while contemplating the progress of the beings to whom they have given existence: again they hope again they fear and the ceaseless variety of life which alone renders it supportable is not succeeded by the apathy which is felt by those who journeying unconnected to the tomb have nothing to hope on this side the grave may every joy the parental he can bestow be yours: well have you fullfilled every duty a Son and A brother may you in the still nearer ones of A husband and A father meet your reward Brother John arrived on the 4th Ultimo since which he has resided chiefly in Newyork he left us two days since to spend two or three weeks at the mineral springs of Morris County he gave me permission to accompany him as A travelling companion on condition of my giving him no trouble and staying till he chose I should return but I was too tenacious of one of the few reasonable privileges we females claim (namely being as troublesome as possible and acting always according to our

You will have expected ere this fortably my Dear Nicholas an answer to the few lines you sent me by Mr Burnet but if you will recollect the unpleasant nature of the intelligence they communicated you will perhaps consider the consequent depression of spirits it occasioned A sufficient apology for the delay

I am confident you would not have disappointed A hope so dear to me as that of seeing you in the ensuing month had the fulfilling of it been possible without materially derranging your affairs to express my regret would therefor be useless and besides I could not indulge my propensity for refusing except by infringing my promise given you in my last letter of troubling you with no more epistles in the pensive style in conformity with my engagement I will therefor dismiss A subject so ill calculated for cheerful discussion

We received a letter from Butler July three days since he was just setting off on a visit to Mount Pleasant for the purpose of being present at the marriage of Mr Longworth's niece Miss Drinnan with A Mr Mackellar a nephew I believe of Judge Mac Allister whose lady I had the pleasure of seeing three years since at Morristown where she resorts every summer for the purpose of seeing her children at A Boarding school in that place

I suspect our Brother Bachelor will not altogether approve of an arrangement which will remove an agreeable female from his brothers residence fortunately he is A philosopher and will doubtless console himself with the reflection that one impediment is removed to what he will call his plaguing the fool but altho our brother may at present be happy in the independence of a single life I am nevertheless sincerely desirous of his forming A suitable matrimonial engagement the pleasures of existence may perhaps be enjoyed alone but for its pains disappointments and anxieties I think my dear brother you will assent from experience what I can only maintain in theory that their most certain alleviation is to be found in female tenderness and that the thorns fest of the present day has not left behind them beautifully exclaimed

Oh Woman! in our hours of ease
Uncertain coy and hard to please
And variable as the shade
By the light quivering aspen made
When pain and anguish wrung the brow

I pray I have not been guilty of the profanity of giving you a correct quotation as I read the poem but once 6 months ago and have not seen it since

One of the gratifications I proposed to myself from seeing you this season was the introducing to you A female friend who in brilliancy of talent and excellence of heart far exceeds any of her sex she have fallen under my observation and almost realizes my most romantic ideas of perfection in woman Caroline R Livingston of A family highly respectable for its numbers opulence and the mental talents which have raised many of its members to the first honors of the state is the lady of whom I speak her father (a younger brother of the late Chancellor Robert R Livingston formerly ambassador to the court of France and late Chancellor of the state of New York) was an eminent practitioner at the bar but the rascally vortex of speculation (so styled by Gen Hull) being rushing his death on the morning of life left an amiable widow

two sons and two daughters dependent on his family the eldest son left London whether he went on A visit to an aunt 6 years since and has never since been heard of the elder daughter Louisa Mary and the younger son Francis reside with their uncle and the mother and youngest daughter boards in the family of Mr Thomas Brown where first I had the pleasure of knowing them and passing in their society some of the happiest hours of my existence

My imagination is incapable of conceiving A felicity superior to that which will be experienced by the man who is destined to touch the heart of this lovely girl on whom her fair dark eyes sparkling with intelligence shall beam with affection in addressing whom her melodious voice shall soften into accents of tenderness - but I have never yet seen the man capable of either estimating or deserving these blessings - but I forget I am expressing this enthusiastic admiration to a man who is already married to A wife whom he would not exchange for one of the Houris who inhabit the Paradise of Mahomets true believers how ardently do I wish for the time when I shall love this amiable wife no less for her own sake than for yours

Thomas Longworth Junr gave us A new cousin a few weeks since on Mrs Jean Tuttle but farther off than a brother or sister I never love any one the better for being my relation

Surely my Dear Nicholas alleviating sorrow by participating it will there be love in a consolation emanating only in fancy or if real the relief it affords to others is denied to me, for bitter is the sigh that swells my heart while my hand traces the lines that will make them a sharer in its affliction. An illness of five days commencing on the 6th and terminating on the 11th has bereft us of a mother a minute description of this event would be equally painful to us both, suffice it then to say that the closing hours of her life were marked by patience fortitude and resignation three days preceding her death she spoke of you with the affecting eloquence of maternal affection; and which with animated gratitude she expiatated on the attention you had paid in supplying her wants unconscious of her danger she dwelt with delight on the promised return of the beloved son she was doomed to see no more she made many anxious inquiries if we had received letters from Joby one dated from Marietta was received the morning preceding the evening of her death I trust it is unnecessary to assure you that no exertion was spared that could alleviate her sufferings or prolong her existence and no expence omitted that custom or propriety required in the last melancholy duties paid to her remains. I will not complain to you of the misfortune peculiar to myself in thus being left to a task I am so unqualified for as the management of a family with heart felt sincerity however do I assure you that no effort in my power shall be wanting to alleviate the loss or contribute to the happiness of my only remaining parent when I lose the recollection of this duty may I also lose what is so invaluably dear to me your affection time presses and another letter to Joseph must yet be written

yours &c C Longworth

Newark April 10th 1814

Dear Brother

Your letter in reply to mine of February 15th was received a few days since and my regret could only equal my surprise at finding the circumstance I believed so consolatory only increasing the sorrow it was designed to soften. You do me justice in believing my heart had no share in the error of my judgement if such you consider it which induced me to repeat to you the last testimony of your deceased parent to your virtues. Yet even to this I will not plead guilty but must believe your self reproaches could only have arisen from your readiness to detract from your own merits: or if your high principled mind and affectionate heart will not admit that any merit can be attached to the dictates of filial affection yet permit me to say you have not justly estimated your scrupulous performance of the most sacred of duties

In mentioning the receipt of your last letter to your father you will excuse my attempting any comment on its contents whatever emotion it was calculated to excite surprise was to me certainly not of the number long has thy heart been known to me and the lines which so well displayed it only told me that heaven had conferred on thee the means of indulging its generous propensities

the part of a mistress of a family is unfortunately too true but another servant would only materially increase the dillemma I also improve wonderfully in domestic management, and am so fully convinced of the extent and versatility of the powers of my understanding that I am not without hopes of accomplishing my share of the end for which, according to your sublime conceptions the sex were created by becoming a very tolerable housewife To effect this it is true it will be necessary to forget the principal pleasure or rather passion of my existence for I perceive but too well that it is totally incompatible with the undivided attention that family cares require. the sacrifice which imposes I shall however make without repining and may perhaps be indebted to it for an escape from the ridicule to which a taste for literature invariably subjects a female. My constitutional indolence notwithstanding still continues unabated, and as I am not inclined to acts of supererogation and know of no crime which should subject me to the penalty of confinement and hard labour for life, I am much inclined to be relieved from the most troublesome part of my charge, by the reduction of our family to the age it was two years since I flatter myself Brother Foley will have no objection to making arrangements for the purpose, as it would be not less for my father sake than my own, and equally beneficial could the expression of gratitude add any thing to the pleasure of having merited it not for your generosity to myself would my thanks be most warmly rendered: but for that which has secured to a brother whom misfortune has only given another claim on my tenderness an independence which a cruel accident has denied him the power of attaining But still more for that which has relieved from the anxieties annexed to the pursuits of business the beloved being who holds the first place in my heart And never my Brother could the powers of language express so animated an encomium as the tear that rolled down the cheek of your venerable father which he listened to the words of his son Never but once while he lent for the last time over the lifeless form of the object of his youthful love and the faithful friend of his age, have I seen him so deeply affected. Your postscript perhaps gave the most unmixed pleasure of any part of your letter and the promise it contained is certainly the one of which we shall most sensibly feel the disappointment

Your scheme for relieving my domestic embarrassments communicated in your last letter is characteristically generous but not exactly adapted to the inconvenience it is designed to remedy. it is not a slave to govern, but a mistress to govern me my Dear Nicholas that is wanting that I am peculiarly unqualified for to the children. My father requests you to mention to Foley the reason of his not having written to him before this is that he has received no letter from the southward except one from Dunning & Clay closing the account of sales for some tobacco

The circumstance of Brother John's having deferred his return for a longer time than was expected has compelled me to trespass on your attention by repeating a request contained in my last letter, with which lonely experience more strongly demonstrates the necessity of a compliance. You will perceive I attend to the removal of Archibald's children to another residence that I esteem this essential to the tranquility of my own existence I will not deny but it is no less true that the solicitude with which I press it, is occasioned by a stronger interest than concern for my personal convenience could ever inspire his approach to the time that fate has decreed the period of human life: her sufferings by frequent illness: to plainly tell me that with the death of my father ceases the last tie that attaches me to this world will soon be broken. No sophistical arguments are necessary to prove that the anxious cares attendant on the charge intrusted to him are incompatible with the ease required by our father's age and infirmities his wish to declare it has been suppressed from the consideration that it was conferred on him as a favor: but however meritorious the intention may have been, it is certain its effects have been for different considered in a pecuniary point of view it is a fact that after two years hard labour and much expence of patience, he is no richer than at the commencement of that period. In fact I presume is committed the sole care of educating of the children of his Brother - Archibald has not written to my father but once since their arrival he appears to be as neglectful of his children as he has been many years of his parents Affection to their welfare imperiously demands they should be subjected to an authority more coercive than that which the mild disposition of my father has ever enabled him to exercise - In respect to the daughter I would wish to resign to the mistress of a boarding school the responsibility of endowing her with those personal and mental accomplishments which nature never destined her to possess I of the young men are designed for either of the learned professions the Bloomfield Academy is considered much superior to that of Newark many are sent to it from this place by their parents; the accomodations are also less expensive should they continue in Newark Thomas Brown would receive them as boarders and from the excellence of his moral character I know of no one more unexceptionable as A guardian of youth

Shall I should have preferred requesting your influence to using my own in this affair may excite some surprise were my confidence in his affection what it once was I should have certainly applied directly to my brother, but his declaration that I had forfeited his esteem, and that my welfare or misfortunes were to him equally indifferent, is still too deeply impressed on my mind to admit of my addressing him the recollection equally with that of his former kindness must be eternal, and consistently with the respect due to myself from him I can never more ask or accept a favor. Once more I repeat there is a necessity for his immediately attending to the subject on which I have written: his personal attendance if inconvenient to him I presume will not be indispensable I place implicit reliance on your filial if not your paternal affection in influencing his immediate decision

The family are in health except my father who has for two days been much indisposed

Yours C Longworth

October 12th 1818

The painful state of uncertainty in which I have remained for some weeks, my dear Nicholas, respecting the probable accomplishment of my anxious wish to return to you this season has hitherto delayed the acknowledgment of your last affectionate letter. After the arrangement of our Western journey my kind and attentive but whimsical Brother thought it would be more pleasing to me to spend the Winter in S Carolina on his return to N York in the spring, and from thence proceed to Ohio. He ridiculed my offering my impatience to see you to the novel and agreeable tour he projected, and affirmed a delay of a few months would be of no consequence to my declaration that if the intervention of months could be indifferent to me I should care little for seeing you at a later period. He replied that if I were really so romantic and irrational he thought it would be necessary to separate me from you who was much more likely to encourage my silly whims than to correct them. — In the exercise of his will I am not accustomed to offer a positive denial of my powers of persuasion were however exerted but at the period when he gratified me by acceding to my wishes and every preparatory arrangement was completed for commencing our journey the present week, an accident equally distressing in its cause and effect has intervened to obstruct my wishes —

Last Monday Brother Sidney walked out to hunt at an early hour came in with wet feet changed them in a hurry and took cold as it appears must have burnt on of them considerably and the other slightly and been totally unconscious of it. He did not notice it till Sunday Evening when on examining it found the toe and part of the side of his right foot much blistered with every appearance of being occasioned by fire. He however affirmed this was impossible and refused to have the proper plaster applied. On Wednesday regardless of my entreaties that he would keep his foot still he insisted on attending me to Prof Hall's Examination and on returning from Elizabeth Town in the evening his foot and ankle appeared much inflamed. I applied a poultice for reducing the inflamation but as it appeared to grow rather worse the better on Saturday he slipt on his gig proceeded to Newark and consulted Doctor Horsch who gave a prescription but no hopes of a speedy recovery and recommended his remaining in the City for some days for the benefit of his constant attendance — He returned to Newark however the same evening since that period till the present morning Monday I have regularly applied the prescription but as I feared with so little benefit that I have again sent him to Newark he will either return this evening or should his foot remain so sloughy requests write by this evening Mail and you will readily conceive with what anxiety I await intelligence — I can scarcely hope the disappointment will escape a tedious probably painful confinement of at least some weeks. The time I had allotted for the journey which is to restore me to you, must be employed in attempting to alleviate the sufferings of one whose hours of health have often been devoted to my pleasure and I much fear my journey will be delayed till the succeeding spring

With a delay in which indimation has no share, dismissed the time was! you inquire for my return? No my absent friend, to my distress forebodings and regret so painful an approach seem is not added not till my own heart acknowledges that gratitude and affection to you is not the most ardent feeling with I doubt the full possession of a life long so fondly dedicated to the force of my inclinations as yours is known and confidence. For myself every hour since our separation has more forcibly convinced me I cannot live distant from you that your uniformly kind and affectionate cares have become indispensable to my happiness and should I be fortunate enough once more to meet you of my inclination alone to consult no fears will ever again separate us but the boundaries of the grave

The same reasons which have delayed my acknowledging your have also prevented my answering dearest kind and welcome letter I hope to write to him in a few days, as of the first favorable change which affords hope of our Brothers recovery I shall write constant intelligence

I have the modesty to share in the astonishment you express at the Ohio lovers wishes for my return. They are probably caused rather by their forgetfulness of me than their remembrance. I am even more astonished at discovering I am very anxious to see them. And am not a little angry at having given some silly proofs that I have not forgotten them since leaving them — My lovely niece on her maternal prepossessing to respect the silly sayings of her lad-pilots have more than once been repelled by her reminding me of the infantile intercourse which I have often recalled the mischievous exploits of my Rowdy Nephew commented on the marvellous sagacity of my early fabled name-sake in the discovery she made of her real father in the person of Papa Gracie — and the fonds and pleasures I had witnessed in the early prosperity she made in the feminine accomplishment of sewing

To my valued friend P L Sylvanus present if you please assurances of my sorrow for his late illness, and pleasure at his convalescence — It is extremely satisfactory to me that by his residence with you he enjoyed the benefit of your skillful and affectionate cares — Still his absence has not in the slightest degree diminished my interest for him and my respect has increased since, not

Newark June 5th 1815

I have addressed you my beloved Brother in a moment of greater gaiety but never with more calm composure than at present yet it is my task to announce to you the death of our only remaining parent scarcely could it be a painful one could I impart to you the peaceful tranquility that reigns in my own bosom. This could not fail to be, had you like me witnessed the closing scene of our beloved father. We have nothing to regret for him and consequently not for ourselves. He lived till life had ceased to be a blessing, he met death with the calm fortitude the fervent hope which the belief he was entering on a happier existence inspired. For 6 painful months I mourned that life for him had lost its charms. For 6 days I was agonized in witnessing the struggles of his strong constitution against an inevitable disease - those pangs are over; and I suffer no longer. he rests in peace, and I am at peace also. His death tho not an unexpected has been a sudden event. My last letter informed you of his declining health and of the hopes which arose from the return of spring. those hopes were vain his weakness rapidly increased nevertheless on the Saturday preceding his death he rode 3 miles with Brother Isaby. On Sunday he was for the first time confined to his room. On Monday he told me he felt he must soon leave me, that believing he was going to a better world his only regret on leaving this was his separation from me. I made an effort to suppress my feelings and which I pressed him to my heart assured him of my confidence that my fond attentions could not assure him the felicity death would bestow that I was not so selfish as to wish to detain him in his present state and my only wish was to die with him - "It may not be so said and dearly as I love you I do not wish it for you I trust life has many pleasures for myself I have lived to a good old age, have enjoyed many blessings, and die in the hope of meeting you in a better world." but he added "I may hopefully recover as ardently as we hope what we desire. I felt this could not be, and the bitterness of disappointed hope was not added to his life. His corporeal weakness rapidly increased, but the hope which supported him received additional strength, and at eleven O Clock on Friday morning June 2d he ceased to breathe retaining to the last the perfection of his mental faculties, for even when bereft of the power of utterance his expressive countenance spoke every emotion. On Saturday his remains were interred with every respect, the tears of all who knew him affording his most unequivocal eulogium - Thus have I lost the being on earth who loved me the most tenderly; yet could I recall him in the bloom of youth and health, not for a selfish gratification would I incur the pain in death as in life I love him better than myself, and his happiness is dearer to me than my own yet has the residence which alone he shared it with me been imperfectly dear to me which no temptation would have induced me to leave become a dreary solitude I should leave it without regret, without the wish of returning; since I shall never more be expected with impatient tenderness; and welcomed with cheerful affection. As I impressed the last kiss of affection on the brow of my dying father it is true I recollected many expressions I would have given worlds to recall yet he remembered them not and I have the mournful pleasure of knowing that the idolizing preference he felt for me my birth was felt even in his dying hour every exertion which filial affection could make was made by our brother for the restoration of our father the most eminent physicians in New York were consulted by him, and no gratification, spared which could soothe the pains no art could cure; and every affectionate attention which could alleviate my distress he has extended to myself. For this, dear and excellent brother, you have indeed been denied the painful satisfaction of witnessing the last agonies of your paternal friend; yet yours has been the blessed task of giving ease and comfortance to his age: of being equally the object of his pride and affection - "If not in this we shall meet in another life" were the words of our departed father when he pressed your hand for the last time may this hope cheer you in life and be realized in eternity. See "The Marshall Family," by W. M. Paxton for Earls of Pembroke.

John Marshall, who at the siege of Calais on Jan. 17, 1558, demanded restoration of his title as Earl of Pembroke, had a son, Wm. Marshall, of England, whose son, Capt. John Marshall, b. 1596, claimed descent from the great Earl of Pembroke, and was Capt. of Cavalry under Charles I at battle of Edgehill. He fled to Virginia about 1650 and served as officer in Indian campaigns. His son

[I visited Fairhope in May, 1934. It was then owned by Pierce Bros., W. D. Pierce, who rents to W. M. Carter, Sulphur Station, Star Rt., Ky. I understand Pierce Bros. bought it from James Sibley. To reach Fairhope go west on U.S. 42 from Bedford about 1.3 miles and take first road on left after passing cemetery. Go south 2.6 miles from U.S. 42, and cross bridge over stream about 30 to 50 feet wide, continue for 2.2 miles (4.8 miles from U.S. 42) and take road on right, fording stream and reaching Fairhope, 0.3 mile from dirt road or 5.1 miles from U.S. 42.]

An article on the Overton Family was published in the Richmond Times-Dispatch of Sept. 5, 1915. It gives an account of Maj. Gen. Robert Overton b. ca. 1609, one of Oliver Cromwell's chief officers, taken from the Dictionary of National Biography. Gen. Overton m. 1632 Anne, dau. of Jeremy Gardiner of Stratford Bow, Middlesex, England. This Article states that William Overton, b. Dec. 3, 1638, the first of the name in Virginia, was the son of Gen. Robert Overton, but this seems to be a surmise and further proof is needed before accepting it as fact.

The will of Mrs. Barbara (Overton) Winston (dated Oct. 6, 1764) bequeathes to her son John Winston a book called Josephus which contained records of the birth of Wm. Overton and Mary Waters and their children, and the children of their daughter Barbara's son John Winston.

Two excerpts from this book were made in 1821, one by a Mrs. L. Payne and one by Dr. W. S. Pryor. These agree except that William Overton's birth is given as Dec. 3d, 1638, in one, and 1628 in the other, and Barbara Overton's husband is given as James Winston in one and John Winston in the other. (See V1 XI p. 307, V IV p. 2379; W4 p. 27 to 29, 71.)

Record from the Book Josephus

"In the Winston Manuscript Genealogy, by Isaac Winston, of Washington, D. C., now in the Virginia Historical Society, Richmond, is found the data stated to have been derived from an account compiled from the book called Josephus in August, 1821.

"William Overton, born in England, December 3, 1638, married Mary Waters, 1670; issue: Elizabeth Overton, born June 28, 1673; William Overton, born Aug. 14, 1675; Temperance Overton, born Mar. 2, 1679; Samuel Overton, born Aug. 14, 1685; James Overton, born Aug. 14, 1688; Barbara Overton, born Feb. 5, 1690, married James Winston. Issue of James Winston and Barbara Overton: John Winston, born June 9, 1724, married Feb. 3, 1746. Issue of John Winston: William Overton Winston, born Nov. 6, 1747; Mary Todd Winston, born Nov. 30, 1750; James Winston, born Mar. 12, 1753; Molly Winston, born Mar. 28, 1755; John Winston, born Oct. 14, 1757; Elizabeth Winston, born Jan. 1, 1760; Joseph Winston, born Apr. 2, 1763; Martha Winston, born June 21, 1765; Bickerton Winston, born Jan. 28, 1768; Alsey Ann Winston, born Aug. 8, 1769."

The following is a copy of the Record in the book Josephus taken by Judge W. J. Leake from a copy of a copy made by W. S. Pryor in Aug., 1821:

"Wm. Overton, born December 3, 1628, in England; married Mary Waters, November 24, 1670. Emigrated to America.

"Elizabeth, their daughter, born June 28, 1673.

"William Overton, their son, born Augst. 14, 1675.

"Temperance Overton, their daughter, born March 2, 1679.

"Samuel Overton, their son, born Augst. 14, 1685.

"James Overton, their son, born Augst. 14, 1688.

"Barbara Overton, their daughter, born Feby. 5, 1690.

"Barbara Overton married John Winston.

"Barbara Overton Winston died Octo. 30, 1766."

The name Mary is certainly an error as her mother's will gives it as Elizabeth. It is possible, however, that she was christened Elizabeth and called Mary, which may be equally true of her daughter Elizabeth.

0 WILLIAM OVERTON
(w. ANN WATERS & J)

b. England, Dec. 3, 1638. (This is generally accepted as the correct date.) Emigrated to Virginia, m. at Yorktown (R2) Nov. 24, 1670, on board the vessel on which she came to this country, Elizabeth Waters (w. Ann Waters) (called Mary in Josephus).

"The Virginia land books contain record of a deed for 4,600 acres of land on the south side of Pamunky River on Falling Creek 23d. April, 1681, to William Overton, for transporting ninety-two persons to the colony, including Elizabeth Overton. Another deed to William Overton in 1690 was for additional land in St. Peter's Parish"—(R2. Also see A V p. 776).

(V I p. 71 gives) "Louisa County Records. Elizabeth Bacon, of the Co., of Louisa, Will of., Mentions her nephew William Overton. Gives to her nephew Philip Edloe Bacon. To her cousin Susan P. Farrar. To her nephew Algenon Sidney Bacon. To Dr. Julian Kean and his wife Mary Kean her dear friend. Executor —Dr. Julian Kean. No witnesses. William Overton and Lancelot Minor Jr. take oath that this will is in the hand-writing of the said Elizabeth Bacon whereupon the will is probated, Dr. Julian Kean qualifying as Executor with William Overton security. Aug. 13, 1838, Oct. 6, 1837, W. B. 10, p. 102."

W.M.D. writes me July 1, 1935: "I think the William Overton here referred to, was my grand mother's half uncle, the son of Capt. John Overton & his second wife Ann Bacon. I remember having been taken as a boy of 10 or 11 to see Uncle William Overton of Prospect Hill, Louisa Co., evidently the above."

Issue: 1—Elizabeth Overton, b. June 28, 1673. Like her mother she may have been called Mary. There is a tradition that she m. Robert Anderson II. (R2 says "no trace"); 2—William Overton, b. Aug. 14, 1675, m. (R2) Peggy Garland; 3—Temperance Overton, b. Mar. 2, 1679, d. Feb. 19, 1710 (R2) m. ca. 1695 (tradition states—W4) William Harris of Hanover; 4—Samuel Overton, b. Aug. 14, 1685, m. (R2) Carr; (The only references to their descendants I have so far is from A IV p. 226 & 677 which gives Joseph Eggleston, 1678-1730, m. 2d. 1720, Anne Pettus, 1702-36, dau. of John Pettus and Anne Overton, dau. of Samuel Overton); and the following from (R2):

"Of the family of Samuel (2) Overton, who married Miss Carr, I have learned but little. In Virginia Land Office there is record of a deed for land on 'south and north forks of Elk Creek, 7 January, 1725, to William Overton, son of Samuel Overton, sometime of New Kent County.' It was Samuel (2) Overton's daughter, Ann Overton, who married John Pettus, grandson of Colonel Thomas Pettus, of "Littleton," who was Councilor of State for Virginia, 1641-1660."

An error somewhere as Samuel Overton, b. 1685, could not have had a g.dau. b. 1702.

5—Capt. James Overton b. Aug. 14, 1688, d. (GH) June 18, 1749, m. Elizabeth (GH) Truhart nee Garland [d. Nov. 19, 1739—GH]; 6—Barbara Overton, b. Feb. 5, 1690, d. Oct. 30, 1766, m. James or John Winston.

03 TEMPERANCE OVERTON
m. WM. HARRIS

R2 gives: "Captain William Harris (died before 1733, according to Hanover County deed), married about 1695, Temperance (2) Overton, daughter of the immigrant, William Overton. She died February 19, 1710, according to her tombstone still in Hanover. Her eldest son was Major Robert Harris, who was born about 1696 and married January 30, 1720, Mourning Glenn. The St. Peter's Parish Register gives: 'Elizabeth, daughter of William Harris, baptized 27th of November, 1698; George, son of William Harris, baptized 13th of April, 1701; John, son of William Harris, baptized 28th of March, 1703.' These were probably children of Temperance Overton, whose mother and sister were named Elizabeth. Benjamin Harris, who died in Louisa in 1765, was, without doubt, another son of Temperance Overton. In both the Hanover and Louisa records he and brother, Robert, in deeding land name 'father William Harris.' And Benjamin, in his will, named brothers, Frederick and Robert, as executors, and bequeathed property to sons Overton, Robert and another not named, and daughter, Nancy. There were probably two others, William and James, of St. Martins, Hanover County, who were sons of Temperance Harris. Pedigrees of this family list the following as children of William and Temperance Harris, namely: John (who married a Miss Clough), Overton (who married Ann Nelson, born 1731), Frederick (who married Eliza, daughter of Richmond Terrell and Nancy Overton), Keziah (who, in 1750, married James Nelson, born 1723), Mary (who, in 1748, married Edward Nelson, Jr., born 1727), Ann (who married William Day), Temperance (who married Samuel Baker). Evidently these were all grandchildren of Temperance (Overton) Harris, who died in 1710. They may have been children of William Harris, Jr., hence the confusion. They were certainly not children of Robert and Benjamin. I hope to solve this problem and to publish some day a full account of this Harris family. I shall be pleased to have help from any source."

05 CAPT. JAMES OVERTON of St. Martin's Parish, Hanover Co., Va., m. Elizabeth Truhart nee Garland. R2 says about their issue: "John (3) married Ann Booker Clough; William (3) married his cousin, Jemima Harris; James (3), born 1726, married Mary Waller; Nancy (3), married Richmond Terrell; Barbara (3), born April 20, 1720, married John Carr; Mary Garland (3), married David Cosby; Margaret (3), married Sir William Bickley, Bart.

"Note—By mistake the above have sometimes been given as children of William (2) Overton and 'Peggy' Garland. For proof that at least Barbara (3) was daughter of Captain James Overton, see Virginia Historical Magazine, II., p. 222, and III., p. 208."

V5 p. 385 & 1628 gives the same list as children of Wm. Overton, b. Dec. 3, 1638, and Mary Waters, an obvious error.

The following are the issue of Capt. James Overton and Elizabeth Garland as given me by (DWX652V) Dr. Wm. M. Dabney:

"James Overton & Elizabeth Garland had issue: (1) Mary Garland O. m. David Cosby. (2) Barbara O. m. John Carr (3) James O. b. 1730 d. 1816 m. P—POUNCEY ANDERSON

d. 1781 (V2 p. 352—Pouncey Anderson and wife Elizabeth of St. Martin's Parish Hanover Co. deed to William Byars, land St. Martin's Parish. Louisa, Henson's Creek, patented by Pouncey Anderson in 1725, Louisa Co. D.B. C.85, 1761;—also gives other deeds; deeds son Michael 100 a. D.B.E. 136, 1777), m. Elizabeth (w.h.) Holland (dau. of Nicholas Holland), will recorded in Goochland Co., Va., 1746.

1—Richard Anderson (w.f.m.), b. 1735, d. Aug. 17, 1819, Col. of Louisa Co. Militia and chief justice of the County Court, a member of the Committee of Safety during the Revolution, and a member of the Va. House of Burgesses representing Louisa Co. (V2 p. 354 —estate Col. Richard Anderson, inventory Louisa Co., Va., W.B. 6 121, 1819), m. (Czrzy) Mary (w.[P]d.h.) Johnson (V1 XXV p. 328 & 423), d. Jan. 23, 1761, (dau. of Nicholas Johnson [son of Thomas Johnson and Ann Meriwether (R-2 III), who was dau. of (Cz) Elizabeth Crawford] and Elizabeth Hudson, dau. of Charles Hudson).

The dates of birth and death of Richard Anderson and his wife Mary Johnson were given me by (wqx531) Mary Unity Pendleton, who got them from the Col. Dames papers of (wqx57) Roberta Trice Hunter, which referred to Historical Magazine, Vol. IV, page 80. Neither Miss Pendleton or I know what magazine this is. The dates may be wrong as a deed is on record in Louisa Co., D.B.D., 186, 1773, from Richard Anderson and his wife Mary to John Hawkins (V2 p. 353).

The Douglas Register gives under marriage records: "Anderson, Col: Rich: & Catherine Fox, both of Louisa 1780, Ap: 24 p. 19." (Do p. 9—W2 1st XV p. 32) and it gives the dates of baptism of their children Chandy, Susanna, Joseph and Nansy, who are mentioned in the will of Elizabeth Anderson, dated July 7, 1791, as her Grand Children, Children of Richard Anderson. This shows that Richard, husband of Caty Fox and son of Pouncey & Elizabeth Anderson was Col. Richard Anderson. While his marriage record to Caty Fox gives him of Louisa and the inventory of his estate was recorded there, the deeds by him & his wife Caty Anderson, sometimes called Katy or Catherine, give their residence as Hanover Co. (V2 p. 354). In the volume of Hanover Records, in the Archive Dept. of the Va. State Library in Richmond, covering the years 1783-1792 on page 529 is a deed recorded 1791 from Richard Anderson and Catharine his wife of Hanover Co., Witnessed by John Woodson Jr., Judith Anderson, Kitty Anderson, Thos. Wash, & Joseph Johnson, and signed by Richd. Anderson and Caty Anderson.

Col. Richard Anderson had daughters Kitty & Judith and son-in-law John Woodson by his 1st marriage. The Kitty Anderson, wits. of this deed may not have been his dau. as she was married when her grandmother made her will in 1791, in which she is named Kitty, not Killy as given in Valentine. Thos. Wash m. Susannah Fox, dau. of John Fox b. 1739 who was the bro. of Caty Fox Anderson (W2 1st. XXVI p. 129).

In the same vol. of Hanover Records, p. 5—25 Apr. 1783 Richard Anderson of Hanover Co. & wife Caty to Wm. Anderson of Louisa Co. 480 a. in St. Martin's Psh. Hanover; p. 343—Nov. 4, 1788 Rich. Anderson & Caty his wife of St. Martin's Psh. Hanover Co., and Edm'd Anderson & John Thomson, Justices of Hanover Co. certified Apr. 1, 1789 that said Caty did relinquish her dower rights; on p. 373—Jan. 6, 1790 Power of Attorney signed by Richard Anderson, was proved by Rich. Anderson Jr. at court Hanover Co. Jan. 7, 1790.

Elizabeth Anderson, in her will, pro. 1794, speaks of my granddaughter Elizabeth Anderson, wife to Matthew Anderson, dau. of her son Richard Anderson. Mrs. J. H. Hiden (See p. 34) has a photostat copy of a marriage bond which reads as follows: "Know all men by these Presents that we Matthew Anderson & John Nelson are held & jointly bound unto our Sovereign Lord King George the third in the sum of Fifty Pounds Court Money, to be paid unto our Sd. Sovereign Lord the King his Heirs and Assigns, To the Payment whereof well & truly to be made we bind ourselves & each of us, (we?) & each of our Heirs, Ass' & Admrs. Jointly & severally ———— by these Presents, sealed with our seal & Dated this Third Day of May 1772. The Condition of this Obligation is such that whereas there is a marriage intended to be solemnized (illegible)
Mattw Anderson & Eliz. Anderson (illegible)
there be no Lawfull cause to obstruct the sd. marriage then the above Obligation to be Void. Or Else to Remain in full force & virtue. Matthew Anderson (Seal)
Sealed & Delivered John Nelson (Seal)
In Presence of (Name of witness is not legible)

Sir; I do hereby certify that I Consent to the Marriage between Matthew Anderson and my daughter Elizabeth Anderson. Given under my hand and seal the 4th day of May 1772. Richard Anderson (Seal)
Test: Susannah Goodwin
Ann [her mark] Langmin.

Thus Elizabeth was the daughter of the first wife Mary Johnson. She named a dau. (wqy) Mary Johnson Anderson, who is named in the will of (w) David Anderson as the dau. of his son Matthew (See p. 32-A).

Miss Pendleton informs me there is recorded in Louisa Co. a deed from Ann Cosby (late Ann Meriwether Johnson, wife of Thomas Johnson) conveying, under date 1756, eight slaves to her gr. daughter, wife of Richard Anderson.

THE ROGERS, CLARK, MARSHALL LINE

See—"Some Recent Finds Regarding the Ancestry of General George Rogers Clark," by (R2110325) R. C. Ballard Thruston, in The Filson Club History Quarterly, Jan., 1935.

(R2110325) R. C. Ballard Thruston wrote me as follows on Jan. 29, 1935:

"If you will now turn to 'The Conquest of the Northwest Territory and Life of George Rogers Clark,' by Wm. H. English, Vol. I, page 31, you will find a copy of the will of Jonathan Clark, dated April, 1734, probated June of that year. This I quote in my article. He bequeathed to his two sons the property where on 'my mother now lives'; the property whereon 'I now live after the death of my wife'; and the property in Goochland or Albemarle County. His father was evidently dead at the time of making that will—but his mother was still living. Just who she was I have not yet been able to determine with certainty. Mrs. Clopton makes her Elizabeth Lumpkins—Mr. Warner makes her Ann Fisher. I am not certain that either is right. Not long after his death, his wife—whose maiden name was Elizabeth Wilson, a Rogers descendant—married a Mr. Richards—I am not certain what his name was, but I think it was William Bird Richards."

ROGERS FAMILY

I am giving only enough of the Rogers family to show certain connections as (v62536) Hopewell L. Rogers is preparing a Rogers' Genealogy.

of the estate of Torkle McLeod, Dated 21 April, 1752. Order for same Essex Co. Account of Sales of the Estate of Torkle McLeod, deceased, Dated 15 May, 1753, Essex Co., value £209-8-6. John Clark's Account with Torkle McLeod's Estate, 1753-1758, Essex Co. Account of the Estate of Torkle McLeod, John Clark, Adm., 1759, Essex Co.

R. C. Ballard Thruston wrote me as follows on Jan. 29, 1935:

"Mrs. Clopton found this Torquil McLeod material at Tappahannock in Essex County, and her telling me of it was the cause of my going there. There I saw the records, first of the Inventory of Torquil McLeod's estate, then the Appraisement—both in 1752, then the next year John Clark's report of the sales, then in 1759 his final reports. There were two of them—one early in the year and the other in November. Then, in searching, Mr. Warner found the John Bates, Jr., will, which locates the wife of John Rogers as Rachel and locates him and his daughter, Ann. Then in my further search I located the originals of all of these papers and had them photostated. The next thing I found was the first entry regarding Torquil McLeod in June or July, 1751, wherein he reports that his white servant has been rambunctious and the man was ordered whipped unless he obeyed. Then late in 1751, Mr. Warner found the deed for 96 acres to Torquil McLeod, the acquisition of which property made him a voter in the election for Burgess in January, 1752. I looked back of that as far as 1741 and found all of the polls of elections, in none of which did Torquid McLeod vote. I am inclined to think, therefore, that his marriage took place in 1750 or 1751. The probabilities are that he completed the payment for 96 acres of land about the time that he acquired the deed. It was customary then, and I believe even still is customary in rural districts, to buy land under a title bond and make the deed when the payment is complete. In cities we make a partial payment and retain a lien for the unpaid amount.

"In my study of the Minute Books I found that John Clark, as Administrator of Torquil McLeod brought suit against some twenty-odd people for amounts due McLeod, showing that he was a man of means and had loaned money to many of his neighbors. These suits were all handled by attorneys and extended over a period of Courts, many of them being continued from time to time.

"I have not gone through very many inventories in that section of the country, but Warner has and he tells me that horses were rare, yet I find that McLeod had a bay horse, a Dunn horse and a yearling. He also had a bridle, a saddle and housing—the housing being what we would today call a saddle blanket. He had a white man servant, four years to serve, and he had some three slaves.

"Each year he* paid Mrs. Richards six pounds for caring for the child. I think it was in the last entry in which he speaks of the child as a girl—in no case did he give the name of the girl.

"From John Clark's reports, his mother cared for the McLeod daughter, probably as long as she lived. Just what disposition was made of that farm, I have not yet found out. They are points that I am asking Mr. Warner to look up for me. I think the probabilities are that Ann McLeod lived with her grandmother until her grandmother died, and then went to live with John Clark and his wife in Caroline County, and I am satisfied that she was living with John Clark when she met William Marshall, Jr., and later married him."

Note—Mrs. Clopton, referred to above, was, before her marriage, Virginia Marshall, g.dau. of (R21219) Capt. John Marshall. Her sister, Mary Louise (m. S. L. Wiley), owns the old Marshall Bible. I am endeavoring to get a copy of its Record for reproduction.

Ann Clark and Torkle McLeod had only one child.

THE STANDARD MARCH 12, 1881.

The Anderson Family.

The Anderson family of Virginia, prominent representatives of which are now scattered throughout the Southern and Western States, deduce from two brothers who emigrated from Scotland* and settled in Hanover county, Va., near the close of the seventeenth century. They were:

R-22 I. Robert,[1] of "Gold Mine,"† married Mary Overton.

II. David,[1] married —— and had issue.

R-23 Issue of Robert[1] and —— (Overton) Anderson:

I. Robert,[2] of "Gold Mine," born January 1, 1712, died 1792; married Elizabeth, (born April 3, 1722, died November 10, 1779,) daughter of Richard Clough,‡ a native of Wales, whose wife was Cecilia,§ daughter of —— and Lucilia (Poindexter) Massie. Issue:

*A tradition, however, gives the founder of the family in Virginia as Thomas Anderson, of Northumberland county, England, who established a R-24 ship-yard at Gloucester Point in the seventeenth century. A representative of the family settled in St. Petersburg, Russia. It is claimed that an emblazoning of his arms is extant as follows: Vert, three bucks lodged or. Crest—A buck lodged, holding in the mouth an acorn leaved, and wounded in the breast by an arrow. Motto—Nil desperandum, auspice Deo.

†The house here is still standing. "Rocky Mills," formerly the seat of Colonel John Syme, lying on

R-25 one side, and the Dabney plantation on the other. The name "Gold Mines" is said to have originated in the fact of the discovery of gold in the vicinity by the early colonists.

‡The name Cecilia Anderson occurs as a grantee

R-26 of 400 acres of land in Hanover county, in the records of the Virginia Land Registry Office in 1719. The following received grants between that period and 1743: David, John, Matthew, James, ("of Urtuca George county.") R-78 †Governor Anderson is quite confident that the name of the wife was Mary Overton. He recollects the visit to his father of his "cousin" John Overton, of Virginia. The Overtons of Nashville, Tennessee, were of the same family. In the Hanover county, Virginia, records appears March 23, 1734, a deed from Mary Anderson, relict of Robert Anderson, of St. Paul's parish, Hanover county, conveying as executrix to his son John 335 acres of land on Totopotomoy creek. Witness, Bartholet Anderson. Another like deed is recited to his son Charles.

R-79 ‡We find by reference to the Virginia Land Registry Office that Cecilia Anderson received a grant of 400 acres of land upon "the north side of Newfound river, beginning at William River's upper corner red oak on the same, running up by the meanders to another red oak, Book No. 11, p. 78, November 12, 1721. It is not stated whether she was maiden, wife, or widow.

§Of her family the following has been furnished us:

R-80 William[2] Marshall (born 1740), of Caroline county, Va., son of William[1] and Elizabeth (Williams) Marshall, of Mecklenburg county, married 1768 Ann (born 1750), daughter of Torquhil and Ann (Clark) McLeod, and had issue:
I. Elizabeth,[3] born July 18, 1769; married Hugh Roy
II. Ann Clark,[3] born February 10, 1772; married William Samuel, Henry county, Ky.
III. Frances,[3] born September 1, 1774; married Robert Tompkins, of Caroline county, Va.
IV. Mary,[3] born November 11, 1776; married William Webb, of Virginia.
V. Sarah,[3] born November 10, 1778, died August 25, 1854, married (his second wife) Colonel Richard Clough Anderson, of "Soldier's Retreat," Ky.
VI. George Rogers,[3] born April 10, 1782, married Mary Hoskins, his second cousin.
VII John,[3] born September 27, 1784, married Amelia Field, of Henry county, Ky. Her family located in Bullard county, Ky.
VIII, Robert,[3] born February 26, 1787; unmarried.
IX. Lucy,[3] born October 6, 1789, unmarried.

R-81 William[1] Marshall, of Mecklenburg, was an uncle of Chief Justice John Marshall.

R-82 Ann Clark, the wife of William[2] Marshall, of Caroline county, was the daughter of John and Ann (Rogers) Clark, and aunt of General George Rogers Clark, "the Hannibal of the West."

R-83 John Clark was the son of Jonathan Clark, of King and Queen county, Va. His will, of date April 9, 1778, is recited in a deed of John Clark, of Albemarle county, Va., dated August 13, 1782, in the county records.

‖An impressive incident of his funeral obsequies was that by his dying request six of his sons acted as the pall-bearers. In our estimation a touching and appropriate delegation, for to none could it have been a more reverential and sacred duty.

R-84 ¶His grandfather. In the Hanover county records of 1733 appears a deed of date June 3, which was witnessed by Richard Clough, and September 6, 1733, "at a court held," &c., Charles Barnet and John Rowe, two of the witnesses, saw Richard Clough, the other witness, sign the same. This is evidence that Richard Clough died between the dates June 3 and September 6, 1733.
